San Mateo County Grand Jury Indicts Two On Felony Charges

Land developer Tom Callan Jr., son of the former supervisor, and Sergie Gregoriev, former teacher at Carlmont High School, San Carlos, were indicted Thursday by the San Mateo County Grand Jury on 68 counts of felony involving real estate transactions.

Both denied the charges. They were arraigned Monday in Superior Court on charges of forging names of seven persons on "phony" quit claim deeds involving 20 tax delinquent lots on the coast side.

The jury returned a bill alleging 60 counts of felony against Gregoriev and 52 counts against Callan. The pair were released on $2,500 bail each.

CONSPIRACY

It was alleged that Callan, who lives at 2845 Summit drive, Hillsborough, and Gregoriev, who formerly lived at 51 Winchester drive in Atherton, but now lives in Novato in Marin County, conspired to acquire 20 tax delinquent undeveloped lots valued at $19,680 by paying back taxes of $820, forging deeds and attempting to clear title in court.

Both were called as witnesses in a grand jury hearing Nov. 1 that lasted until 3 a.m. Nov. 2. Callan testified for an hour and 15 minutes, but Gregoriev refused to testify on constitutional grounds.

District Attorney Keith C. Sorenson, said his office and the office of the state attorney general joined in the investigation last June.

Tom Callan, Jr., has long been associated with his brother, Michael in the real estate business, and his father, Tom Sr., is one of the major landowners in the county.

CHOSEN CAREFULLY

Neither Michael nor the elder Callan were questioned, and it was stated they were not involved in the matters under investigation.

Callan was represented by attorneys Michael Aaronson and Mel Cohn. Numerous officials concerned with the official transfer of land appeared at earlier sessions. They included deputy assessors, tax collectors and recorders.

The alleged conspiracy, District Atty. Sorenson said, was done in the following manner:

Tax delinquent lots were chosen carefully. Most of the owners of record were dead and their heirs probably did not know much about the situation. Before the lots were to be sold at public auction, Gregoriev would redeem them by paying the back taxes, a total of $820 for the 20 lots in question.

He then allegedly contrived phony deeds transferring the properties to himself, listing fictitious names as grantors. The deeds were then certified by Callan, in his role as a notary public. Each of the properties was then deeded by Gregoriev to the United States Mortgage Corporation, of which Callan was an officer.

The corporation then filed suits in Superior Court, seeking to quiet title to the lots and obtain an official court declaration that the corporation was the legal owner.

Sorensor. said the scheme went astray when some other property speculators discovered that the lots they had been eyeing were being redeemed at the last minute. They told Sorenson they thought something was wrong.

Sixteen of the lots are in the Half Moon Bay area. The others are in the Brisbane, Emerald Lake, East Palo Alto and Dumbarton (Redwood City) areas. The indictment accused the defendants of conspiracy to commit grand theft and forgery, to record false documents, to make false certification by a notary and to execute a fraudulent conveyance.

Callan and Grégoriev were reportedly close friends for years. Their wives had been sorority sisters at University of California. During the past several years, Gregoriev worked for Callan from time to time as a part-time real estate salesman. Then he became personally interested in speculating in tax lots.

Exchange Program

The Jefferson Elementary School District is considering a teacher exchange program between Jefferson Elementary School District and a school in Costa Rica.

A request to teach in Costa Rica was made to the board of trustees Monday night. In his letter to the board, Robert L. Daugherty, a teacher at Ben Franklin School, said a teacher exchange would result in "stronger bonds of friendship, respect and understanding between American nations . . ."

The board approved a bid of $1,745 from Anchor Post Products Co. for fencing at Thornton warehouse.

In other actions, the board:

Approved an offer from Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith to sell the School District a piece of property containing about 240 square feet adjacent to the Garden Village School. Cost is $100.

Approved a constitution for a student council for the George Washington School.

Entered into an agreement for the education of children living within the Jefferson Elementary School District who

FESTIVITIES FOR KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The 4th, patriotic, degree of the Knights of Columbus, comes to Burlingame Nov. 12.

John J. Enright, Master of the Northern California District, announces that the ceremonies instituting the new assembly and the installation of officers will be held in the Knights of Columbus Building, San Mateo, at 2 o'clock. At the conclusion of these ceremonies there will be a procession to St. Matthew Church, led by the Color Corps of the degree.

The new assembly will be known as the Archbishop Joseph S. Alemany General Assembly. The Most Reverend Joseph S. Alemany, OP, was the first Archbishop of San Francisco, appointed when the Archdiocese was established, July 29, 1853. He resigned for reasons of health Dec. 28, 1884 and returned to his native Spain where he died April 14, 1888.

The activities of the day will end with a banquet at Bob's, on Broadway, Burlingame, at 7 o'clock. The ladies are particularly invited to attend. Officers and members of nearby assemblies are expected with their ladies, and will furnish members from their Color Corps to join in one group for the procession, and at the banquet.

Joseph L. Capurro, Daly City, has been appointed the first Faithful Navigator by the Master. The elected officers of the new assembly are: Faithful Captain Robert G. Gandrau of San Mateo, Faithful Pilot Michael F. McEnany of Burlingame, Faithful Comptroller Ray Tschirgi of Daly City, Faithful Purser Gene Graziani of Daly City, Faithful Scribe Edwin A. Edwards of San Mateo, Faithful Admiral Dudley F. Sullivan of Daly City, Inside Sentinel Michael F. McEnany of Burlingame, Outside Sentinal Joe A. Fell of San Mateo, and three trustees, F. S. B. Cauthorn of San Mateo, George E. Chittenden of San Mateo, and Leo G. Bargioni of Burlingame.

Kids May Win Purebred Pup

Daly City kids are eligible to win an expensive purebred beagle pup at the famous San Mateo Kennel Club Dob Show Sunday, Nov. 19, at the San Mateo County fairgrounds.

The contest is open to all youngsters who can come up with a four-cent stamp. No box-tops, slogans or jingles. The prizes — four purebred beagles

New Business Laws Are Bringing Results

The Better Business Bureau of San Mateo County announced today that new laws recently enacted are bringing results in the business field in San Mateo County.

Among these laws is the amendment to the Retail Installment Sales Act adopted by the 1961 Legislature which puts referral sales schemes under tighter control.

The amendment provides that any promises to pay for referring new customers must be spelled out in the installment contract itself.

Thus the promises made by sellers as regards credits or payments to be received by buyers for referring friends to the seller must be clearly set forth.

If you are promised money by a firm for referring customers to them, be sure it is listed in your contract.

District Governor To Attend Local Rotary Meeting

A visit by Rotary District Governor Norman C. De Laittre will highlight next Tuesday's Daly City Rotary meeting at the Westlake Bowl.

The special Tuesday night dinner meeting has been scheduled in order to hold a Club assembly during the presence of the district governor. The special session will begin at 6 p. m. with a social hour, followed by the assembly, at which time local Rotary committee chairmen will present their semi-annual reports.

President Lee Brillhart has urged all Rotarians to attend the special Tuesday gathering, as well as the regular Wednesday luncheon meeting. De Laittre will also attend the luncheon session.

Last week's Rotary meeting featured the induction of Joseph Verducci, city councilman and director of athletics at San Francisco State College, as the club's newest member.

Guest speaker for the day was Verducci's associate at the college, Vic Rowen, head football coach, who outlined the school's athletic program and spoke briefly on the controversial "shotgun" football formation. Pete Ahern was program chairman, while Don Davis handled finemaster duties.

The local Rotarians renewed the traditional "student-of-the-month" program with the guest appearance of Jim Boyette, student body president at Terra Nova High School. Boyette, a senior who has won both athletic and academic honors at his school, will be the guest of Rotary each week during November. He was introduced by Hal Tonini, a newly-inducted Rotarian and principal at Terra Nova.

Today's Rotary program is headed by Jack Kendree, while Tom Lewis will serve as finemaster.

Bay Crossing Group To Meet

Governor Edmund G. Brown's advisory committee on the planning of a southern crossing for San Francisco Bay will hold its third meeting next Monday evening, Nov. 13, in Millbrae.

The session will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Millbrae Public Library, 521 Magnolia avenue, and the public is invited, according to State Director of Public Works Robert B. Bradford, a member of the committee.

City and county officials, especially those concerned with planning and transportation, have been especially invited to attend and to submit information and suggestions which the State might consider in investigating various possible locations for an additional Bay crossing.

Vista Grande School To Be Dedicated

Vista Grande School, Thiers and Wyandotte streets in Daly City, will be officially dedicated Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at a meeting of the Vista Grande-Thornton PTA. All parents, teachers and children are invited, including alumni of the school.

Members of Brownie Troop 579 and Cub Scout Pack 350, sponsored by the PTA, will be present in uniform. Senior Girl Scouts will be available to attend small children during the short business meeting and the audience participation program.

Mrs. Al Tiraschi, president, requests that parents bring questions regarding their children and the school. Refreshments will be served.

Rep. Francis Will Forego His Incumbency

Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) announced he regretfully would forego his incumbency in the 25th Assembly District (northern half of San Mateo County) because of the difficult problems of moving his family.

Francis' home area in northwestern San Mateo and also GOP Hillsborough were shifted into the southern San Mateo 26th District this year in reapportioning assembly and congressional districts. Under the state constitution, a candidate for the State Legislature must have at least one year's residence immediately preceeding the general election, and so Francis would have to move by Nov. 6.

In making his decision, Francis said, "It was a tough one to make, but this is one time during my four terms in the State Legislature that my family must come first. My wife and I had thoroughly and seriously considered the possibility of moving our home into the newly created district (the 27th).

"After full deliberation, we have reluctantly decided that it would be unfair to our four children, three of whom are in school, to move them from their happy surroundings into a new community where they would be strangers."

The 38-year-old state legislator resides at 129 Castilian Way, San Mateo, with his wife, Alice, and four children, Patrick, 12, Michele, 8, Janice, 6, and Mark, 3.

Francis added, "Furthermore, I cannot financially afford to make the move. During my

Chamber Officers Installation Set For November 16

The Daly City Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual installation of officers Nov. 16 at 8 p.m. in Val's Restaurant, president-elect Frank Curry announced.

First board of directors meeting for the new administration will be held Nov. 9 at the Westlake Bowl at 12:15 p.m. At that time, president Curry is expected to appoint Charlie Maroosis of Westlake Jewelers; Dave Friedenberg, Westlake attorney and Ramona Birke, city hostess, to fill the vacancies on the board of directors.

New officers are president Curry of Curry Distributing Co.; first vice president Bernard Lycett of W. C. Lasswell and Co.; second vice president Joe Rohl, manager of the Westlake office of Pacific Gas and Electric Co.; secretary Alise Shea, of the Westlake Improvement Assn.; and treasurer William Sweeney, Jr., of William Sweeney and Sons.

Directors to be installed the same night will include: Lycett, Joseph Sarto of Villa Sanitarium, Peter Nofziger of Pacific Coast Aggregates, George Smith of Mission Bell Motel, Ramona Birke, Alyce Shea, Friedenberg and Maroosis.

Annexation Hearing To Be Held Monday

A public hearing will be continued Monday on the proposed Christen annexation to Daly City. The hearing will be held at 8 p.m. in the city council chambers.

Arguments against the annexation were heard Oct. 23 by tavern owner George Kirchhubel and the Citizen's Committee for Good Government.

Kirchhubel, along with Julius F. Castelan, 862 Bellevue Avenue, and attorney Edward O'Hare, all urged a public vote on the matter. The annexation would bring more than 1,000 acres of presently uninhabited grazing land into the city's boundaries.

Byrd Tosses Hat Into Ring

Mayor Andrew C. Byrd of Burlingame has announced he will seek the 25th District seat which will be vacated by Republican Assemblyman Louis Francis, who said he will not seek re-election.

Byrd, 56, is a veteran of 12 years on the Burlingame City Council and three times mayor of the city. He formally announced his candidacy at a press conference Monday morning at his home, 1308 Castillo avenue, Burlingame.

Byrd is the first Republican to make known his candidacy for the seat, which Democrats say was redistributed geographically and which Republicans charge was "gerrymandered."

Area Man Killed On Construction

A Pacifica man was killed early Tuesday when a construction site tractor overturned and pinned him beneath. Dead was Roy Jones, Pacifica nurseryman and 17 year resident of the area.

Jones, 46, was active in Pacifica affairs for many years. He at one time ran for city councilman. Jones resided at corner of Clifton and Waterford in Pacifica, and is survived by his wife and three children.

Union Tells Dealers "Never On Sundays"

Sunday there were pickets in front of two Daly City auto dealers—picketing because they didn't like the firms to stay open on Sunday.

Teamsters Local 960, bargaining agents for San Francisco auto salesmen, provided the pickets who stated that in San Francisco they didn't have to work on Sundays and could see no reason that their Peninsula colleagues did.

How their Peninsula colleagues feel about this is still unanswered.

Spokesmen for Neville Ford Co., 7360 Mission, said that it was up to the salesmen to decide what they wanted to do. Ira C. Neville stated that he believed his firm would go along with whatever the salesmen decided on this issue. No comment was available at the other picketed dealer, Gateway Chevrolet, 7400 Mission.

Neither of the auto dealers was open Sunday. Why they were closed is not known. At Gateway, a sign in the window said: Closed for Company picnic. Asked whether his firm plans to stay closed next Sunday, Ira Neville stated, "I couldn't tell you."

The pickets, about 150 strong, paraded in front of the dealers to the strains of "Never On Sunday." Apart from this folksy touch, they were all business. Barney Apfel, president of Local 960, and picket-in-charge said that his union met with executives of the auto firms last week and asked recognition as the bargaining agent for the salesmen.

"We also demanded that they close on Sundays," Apfel stated.

Both demands were turned down, he said, and the decision to picket resulted.

Daly City Man New RE Prexy

John Harrison, local Daly City resident, was elected president of the San Francisco Bay Area chapter of the Insittute of Real Estate Management for the year 1962.

The Institute of Real Estate Management is an organization of real estate specialists qualified and designated, "certified property managers," by the institute and the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

Harrison is a member of the San Francisco Real Estate Board, the California Real Estate Association, the Brokers Institute and the Institute of Real Estate Management. He has taught real estate subjects for the University of California Extension program. He is associated with Saxe Realty Co., Inc.

Others elected to office to serve with Harrison for 1962 are: Arlington Langley, San Jose, vice president; Eldon Peterson, San Francisco, secretary; and George Carter, San Francisco, treasurer.

Harrison resides with his wife, Dorothy, and sons, John and Timothy, at 796 St. Francis Boulevard, Daly City.

Rivera School Class Hears Talk On Eyes

The pupils in Room 12 were visited by the school nurse, Miss Sheila Byrne, on a recent Friday. Miss Byrne spoke to the class on "the sense of sight." The physical make up of the eye was reviewed and an explanation was given on how the eyes work. Conservation of sight was emphasized with the students.

Group questions and discussion brought out cases regarding particular eye problems, proper eye care, and different eye corrections.

The nurse's visit correlated with the pupils' science and health activities to promote greater individual learning and understanding.

A scale model of the eye, classroom drawings, and filmstrips about the eyes and light have also added to each pupil's learning. One climax to the lessons will be a regular, yearly eye test given in the classroom.

Miss Byrne will visit Room 12 again as the school year progresses. Some of her other topics include: The sense of hearing, your teeth, proper posture, and correct nutrition.

Newspaper Plant Visited

Watching the linotype operators, the engravers, the editors, and the presses roll at the San Francisco News - Call Bulletin was part of the field trip enjoyed by Miss Brown's sixth grade class. The class was impressed to learn that all of the newsprint was brought from Canada. This is the country Miss Brown's class is studying at the present time. After touring the newspaper plant, the children ate their lunches in Golden Gate Park, and toured the aquarium.

Hunting Season In Full Swing

Eleven pheasant cooperative hunting areas will be opened to the public by California's Department of Fish and Game for the 1961 pheasant hunting season from Nov. 11 to Nov. 26 in most of the state.

Checking stations at all coops will open at 6 a.m. on opening weekend and at 7 a.m. there after. All permits will be issued on a first-come first-served basis. Hunters must be present to receive a permit. Shooting time is 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

In addition to the 11 DFG coops, pheasant hunting will be permitted on a fee basis of five state Waterfowl Management Areas (Honey Lake, Gray Lodge, Grizzly Island, Los Banos and Mendota), and on three National Wildlife Refuges (Colusa, Sutter and Merced).

In the three federal areas pheasant hunting from Nov. 11-20 will be limited to those with waterfowl hunting permits and will also be limited to Saturdays, Sundays and Wednesdays. From Nov. 21-26 pheasant hunting will be allowed every day of the week.

All pheasant, hunters must have a hunting license and pheasant tags obtainable from any hunting license agent.

Quail And Chukar

The hunting season on quail and chukar partridges opened this year on Oct. 28, with hunting expected to vary from excellent in the northern counties to spotty and generally poor in drought-ridden southern areas of the state.

Quail season will continue through Jan. 1 in all of the state excepting Modoc, Lassen and Plumas Counties, eastern Siskiyou and Shasta Counties, and the northeast corner of Sierra County where the season ends Dec. 17. The bag and possession limit on quail is eight, excepting the northeastern counties with a December 17 closing date where the limit is 10.

The season on chukar or redlegged partridges ends Dec. 17 in Lassen and Plumas Counties and the northeast corner of Sierra County, but continues through Jan. 1 in all of the remainder of the state that is open to chukar hunting. The bag and possession limit on chukars is four.

Quail are abundant this year in the northern tier of counties and down into the San Francisco Bay region west of the Sacramento Valley. Quail populations are generally good as far south as central Kern County but generally below normal in southern California.

Chukar production and survival were excellent this year in Fort Sage Mountain and Skedaddle Mountain areas of eastern Lassen County and improved somewhat over last year in the inner coast range bordering the southern San Joaquin Valley. Chukar production was fair in Inyo County but generally poor in the southern California desert mountain areas.

TALKING BOOKS

The American Foundation for the Blind recorded for the Library of Congress 195 Talking Books last year, an increase of 25 per cent over the year before, according to The New Outlook for the Blind, which contains the Foundation's annual report.

LAW IN ACTION

EASY PAY

In California, the law aims to protect easy pay plan buyers from overcharges in all retail installment buying.

Key provisions:

1. Your installment contract must be contained in one document, the printing in 8-point type or larger, and all filled in before you sign it.

2. The seller must give you a legible and full copy.

3. The contract must set forth all interest or other charges of any kind.

Service charges must not exceed 5/6 of 1 per cent per month on contracts with unpaid balances up to $1,000, and 2/3 of 1 per cent on balances of more than $1,000.

Under the law contract purchases differ from retail installment accounts.

On retail installment accounts service charges must not exceed 1½ per cent per month on balances up to $1,000 and 1 per cent per month on the excess over $1,000.

4. The buyer may pay up any time before maturity and get a credit refund on interest or service charges.

5. On any seller's repossession, the buyer can redeem the goods. He pays the cost of the retaking plus the balance due.

6. When the seller repossesses and sells, his claim for deficiency against the buyer must rest on the goods' reasonable value or their resale price, whichever is higher. And the seller gets no deficiency claim where the buyer has paid off 80 per cent or more of the contract.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

The fall program for preschoolers and their parents is well under way at Village Cooperative Nursery School. The school is under the direction of Mrs. Harry Seghetti.

A get - acquainted pot luck dinner is being planned for the co-op members by Mrs. Earl Hale and Mrs. Hercules Malekos. The party, a bi-annual affair, will be held at the Broadmoor Community Center on Nov. 11.

Good Time Had At Vista Mar Parade

And Mr. and Mrs. Hallowe'en rode in their own man driven carriage drawn by — Beatnik Randy Celle and Clown Brad Weeks at the Vista Mar School parade!

The street in front of the school from Bradley to Westridge was lined with parents and friends enjoying the Mardi Gras atmosphere of the frolic.

The entire school joined in the fun as the children gaily enjoyed a harvest of good time, wherein they had created their own costumes and masks and motivated their families to create many original and clever costumes.

Outside the office all that day sat Mrs. Hallowe'en sunning herself on a chair, and blinking her eyelashes in the wind.

Kindergarten classes came to sing and visit Mrs. Hallowe'en who later rode with her husband in the Mardi Gras.

But who were Mr. and Mrs. Hallowe'en — just real pumpkins that the Vista Mar students had given original construction paper facial expressions. And, of course, one of our Vista Mar parents — Mrs. Clifford Glicksman took movies of the gala event.

Children at the third grade level at Vista Mar in Mrs. Jane Cain's room demonstrated to teachers of third grade level that they are able to work in a well-organized and structured way in committees. The unit on Pueblo Indians, was reflected not only in the room environment, but in the committees working on the Pueblo Village, Indian costumes, clay, jewelry, and other Indian Crafts.

Other than academic values were derived from these groups in terms of setting up, under teacher guidance the standards for committee work — starting work on time, consideration of other groups, working quietly, etc.

Two other teachers in the building have also given demonstrations at their grade level —Miss Mary Wade, who demonstrated story telling at the kindergarten level by use of the flannel board, and Miss Mary Helen Monroe who presented a reading lesson, working with two groups of children and stressing the concepts needed by both groups. Miss Monroe teaches children of the second grade level.

Pacific Manor Whist Party Winners Named

HIGHWAY ROBBERS ARE STILL IN EXISTENCE

Not all highway robbers went out with the horse. We may not have to worry about Black Bart any more, but we could do some worrying about underinflated tires or faulty plugs.

Tires that are underinflated just five pounds, points out the National Automobile Club, can cost you half a gallon of gasoline out of every 20. Dirty air filters can steal about 10 per cent of your mileage. And poor compression, faulty plugs, and slow-acting chokes can pick plenty of pennies from your pocket at the gas pump.

Avoiding such losses can add up to many dollars in savings in a comparatively short time.

Family Theme With Thomas Edison PTA November 9 Meeting

"The Family — the Threshhold to Life" is the theme for the meeting of the Thomas Edison PTA on Thursday, Nov. 9. The meeting will be held in the multi-purpose room at 8 p.m.

Robert Muller, an expert on children's books, will speak on how to choose good books for children. Bob Evans will speak on the place of civil defense in the community.

Back-to-school night, Oct. 12, was attended by 300 Thomas Edison parents.

Harry Aronson, principal, introduced the following teachers and office staff for this year:

Kindergarten—Miss B. Lewis, Mrs. R. Hillman; First Grade—Mrs. P. McMillan, Miss J. Lester, Mrs. D. Toschi, Mrs. E. Shew; Second Grade—Miss J. Ragusa, Mrs. G. Nyhan, Mrs. P. Dallmann; Third Grade—Mrs. J. Gregersen, Mrs. E. Kazakoff, Mrs. A. Katsaros; Third-Fourth — Mrs. A. Sherins; Fourth Grade—Mrs. D. Burchard, Mrs. H. Vinnick; Fifth Grade—Miss E. Johnson, R. Holm; Fifth-Sixth — Mrs. G. Walden; Sixth Grade—Mrs. H. Kent, W. Jonas.

Mrs. V. Beerbower, secretary; Mrs. C. Tamley, school nurse; W. Waldovogel and R. Gernes, custodians; student teachers Misses D. Bradley, J. Gotelli and C. Breeze.

YWCA Wives Hear Gardening Expert

The YWCA Y-Wives will be shifting interest from home to garden this coming Monday, November 13, when they meet to hear Francis Coe, Colma gardening expert, in the fourth session of the "YW College for Housewives." Last week the group discussed home decorating.

Coe will talk and show slides on "Helpful Hints for Gardening and Lawn Care." Planning ahead for a more beautiful garden and lawn will be emphasized.

The YW "College for Housewives" is open to local young women. A nursery is available for infants and pre-schoolers. Coffee and a social time at 9:30 a.m. is followed by the lecture and discussion period. The group meets at the Westlake Bowl.

A lively discussion, pro and con, of children and television, with a panel headed by Mona Baker of Daly City, is planned for November 20.

PACIFICA 'DUCK FARM' USE IDEAS DIFFER

A sharp difference of opinion was voiced Monday night, Nov. 6, in Pacifica as the planning commission reaffirmed its previous stand on the proposed Woodland rezoning in Linda Mar.

The commission maintains the area should remain manufacturing, service, commercial and light industrial.

The commission sent a two-page letter to the city council which favors a shopping center in the "duck farm" area which comprises some 10 acres.

Commissioners stated the council should not be pressured into accommodating building interests and overthrowing previous plans.

The commission feels that if two acres in the area are used for a shopping center, then some seven other acres will go for other uses.

ROBERT W. FERNEKES TO RECEIVE EAGLE SCOUT AWARD

Rapid Transit And San Mateo County

By JIM GOLDSBOROUGH

(Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of articles dealing with rapid transit and San Mateo County.)

With the approval of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, county residents will vote in June of 1962 to either approve or reject the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's $1.1 billion bond issue.

Santa Clara County has dropped out of the district. San Mateo County has not yet decided. Marin County may be excluded. A controversy exists.

The BARTD will submit its official plans to county boards of supervisors this month. The board of each county will accept or reject the plans. If the plans are rejected, that county will be excluded from rapid transit. If the plans are accepted, the people then will vote in the June election for final acceptance. It will be a composite vote of all the district's voters. We will not vote as a county. It is now — with the decision in the hands of our county supervisors — that we decide as a county.

"There is a big difference between the needs of the present and the needs of the future."

Thus BARTD director Thomas F. Casey, Jr., of San Mateo County assessed the needs of the county to look to the future.

"I take what you might call a negative approach," said Casey. "The number of new freeways San Mateo County would need in the next ten years without rapid transit would be prohibitive. The cost would be prohibitive.

"Sure, the Southern Pacific can handle the flow now. But what happens in ten years? It won't be long before our whole area is urban. If some complain that SP service isn't adequate now, what happens then?"

The rapid transit system's ability to improve over Southern Pacific's service will spring from several key factors:

Integration into a regional network.

Train intervals during peak periods of 90 seconds.

Non-peak intervals of 10-15 minutes.

Direct delivery to downtown subway stations in San Francisco.

The diversion of thousands of daily commuters from the freeways will be an indirect benefit of rapid transit. It is predicted that many freeway commuters will be attracted to rapid transit because of time and money saving features offered.

Automatic trains and fare collections will allow for less costly operation, and therefore can provide more frequent trains. Elimination of all hazardous grade crossings will allow for greater speeds. Market street subway stations will provide direct and convenient delivery to downtown San Francisco. And for the first time commute service into San Mateo County will be provided.

Rapid transit will provide peninsula cities with service by an estimated 150 commute trains daily compared with an average of 20 offered by SP. The peak interval of 90 seconds between trains compares with a 25 minute peak of SP. The average interval throughout the day of 10-15 minutes compares with hourly intervals by SP.

"The district plans would not be feasible without San Mateo," said Casey. "I doubt that the other voters would pass it. We are the only county with a proven rail system."

There is, however, opposition in the county to rapid transit.

"There are two main prongs on which this opposition rests," he stated. "First is the cutting off at Palo Alto because of the action of San Clara County. Second is the increase in the tax rate.

THE COST

To obtain the facts about the cost of rapid transit in San Mateo County, a special report was obtained from BARTD for publication to county voters.

The following was compiled from a report supplied the Times and Record by George McDonald of BARTD's information staff:

General obligation bonds are to be sold by the district, and secured by the district's assessed valuation, i.e., the value of the completed facility. The district's ability to sell bonds is limited by law to 15 per cent of assessed valuation. The recommended bond authorization of $1,078,000,000 represents 22½ per cent of the 1960/1961 district valuation of $4,786,461,000. This requires an increase in valuation of slightly more than $2 billion by the end of the construction period in order to sell the entire recommended amount. That increase will easily be achieved, according to BARTD.

The bonds are secured by the credit of the district, including the power to tax. To the extent revenues are not available from operations or other sources, interest and principal will be paid from taxes levied on property in the district.

The general obligation bonds would mature at the turn of the century. The interest rate on the bonds would be 4 per cent. The property tax would be levied uniformly throughout the district. Payment on interest alone would be made during the ten year construction program. Payment on principal would begin at completion.

The tax, therefore, would build during the first ten yars, hold steady, and then diminish, depending primarily upon the degree of growth in assessed valuation.

The table below shows the probable annual costs to property owners with assessed valuation between $3,000 and $6,000 (indicating market values between $12,000 and $24,000 if assessment at 25 per cent of market value is assumed.)

The median assessed valuation is probably near $4,000 ($16,000 market value) and the maximum tax for this valuation is $26 per year.

Estimated annual costs for payment of bond interest and principal by typical homeowner

	Tax Rate Per $100	Assessed Valuation $3,000	$4,000	$5,000	$6,000
Start — 1963	13c	$ 4	$ 5	$ 7	$ 8
Halfway — 1968	51c	15	20	26	31
Complete — 1972	56c	17	22	28	34
Maximum	65c	20	26	33	39

The owner of a San Mateo County home with an assessed value of $4,000 and a market value of $16,000 would pay $5 at the start of the construction in 1963; $20 in 1967; and a maximum of $26 in 1975. The owner of a home with a $5,000 assessed value and a market value of $20,000 would pay $7, $26, and $33 during the listed years.

In a recent statement, district president Adrien Falk stated:

"Nothing that San Mateo does or does not do in connection with rapid transit should delay the realization of our project in the remainder of the Bay Area."

HISTORY AND STATISTICS

The story goes that, in the early days of the telephone, such an instrument was being installed in a police station house in London, England. A grey and grizzled constable stood by, looking at the phone with frank disapproval. After some time, he turned to go out on the beat, snorting and mumbling. He left this gem in his wake as he steamed away: "First thing you know, people will start calling us on that thing!"

The constable's caustic and sarcastic cynicism would bring a smile to the face of any modern day policeman. How right the old veteran was! Today the telephone carries 95 per cent of all of the initial communications to the police from the citizenry.

During the past fiscal year, the Daly City Police Department received the equivalent of more than one telephone call from each and every person living in the city. Obviously, this is a comparative—not everyone called the Department, while others called several times.

This Department received a total of 52,649 telephone messages from all sources to the Dispatcher's desk. This does not include phone calls received by the Chief's office, Captain's office, or the investigation or traffic division offices. This only includes complaints to the Dispatcher's desk.

The teletype machine operates on telephone lines. Over this machine we received 51,964 messages during the year. We transmitted 1,676 messages to other jurisdictions over the teletype machine.

The Department was even more garrulous over the police radio, and transmitted and received a total of 92,184 radio messages between the base station and the mobile radio car units.

Alarm boxes also are hooked up to telephone lines. During the year 1,506 alarms were sounded at the Police Station. These are broken down into 567 fire alarms, 55 burglar alarms, 519 bank alarms, and 365 civilian defense alarms. Needless to say, this means that police radio car units responded to some location in this city 1,506 times, as a result of some alarm sounding in the police station.

We have no figures as to how many times that grizzled old constable turned over in his grave.

TRAINING NOTES — There There are 37 policemen in the department of rank lower than captain. These men have service ranging from a few days to more than 24 years. The average length of service is approximately seven and two-thirds years. The median length of service is seven years.

Uniformed personnel participate daily in InService Training, otherwise known as Roll Call Training. This training is conducted three times daily, at roll call for the oncoming platoon, prior to the men going on patrol. Such training is conducted by the lieutenant or sergeant of the watch, and is of an average duration of 15 minutes per day per watch.

We were speaking of England above, and that brings to mind an article written by Inspector E. O'Ballance of the British transport commission police. He wrote on the qualities of a good policeman. We quote him, in part:

1—GOOD TEMPER. Good temper is, perhaps, the first and most essential quality in making a good patrolman. It is frequently said that the worst crime is to lose his temper. When the temper is lost, self control is lost, and things are said and done which inevitably result in sorrow or apprehension. Bad temper, like drink, clouds part of the brain; and controls habitually exercised are relaxed. Perhaps "even temper" would be a better expression, as a patrolman, of all people, must not relax his self control.

2—PATIENCE. It is said that "patience is a virtue seldom found in woman, and never in man," but we are not so sure. That it is a virtue, there can be no doubt; all patrolmen can develop it to a reasonable degree.

3—CALMNESS. In all situations, no matter what the stresses and strains may be, he must remain calm, cool, and collected. All eyes are on him. What would the public think of a flustered, excited, gesticulating patrolman, who rushed wildlyfrom place to place in a near hysterical condition?

4—TACT. The quality of being tactful must be developed. There are a number of varying views as to what is tact. Some say it is the art of saying the right thing at the right time, while others insist it is not saying the wrong thing at the wrong time. There are other versions, probably all correct. Perhaps it is true to say that tact is a medium, a way of getting something done.

5—CONSCIENTIOUSNESS. This is a form of self discipline. A patrolman must be thorough and see a job through right to the end, no matter how much effort, time and trouble it takes, even though, when it is all over and done there is "no profit in it" for him. If he does not he can be relied upon by neither his superiors, his colleagues, nor the public.

6—COURTEOUSNESS. Unconsciously, young people are thoughtless, brusque, abrupt and casual in their manner and speech. Young officers should recognize this fault and remedy it as soon as possiblle. Bad manners and boorishness upset people needlessly and there is no excuse for them.

7—ENTHUSIASM. Enthusiasm is quality, especially when it is maintained in the face of depressing circumstances. Once it is lost, something goes out of police work. This is the facility for not becoming cynical, disappointed or embittered.

8—TECHNICAL EFFICIENCY. This is mentioned last, because it is possible to develop this while neglecting the other qualities. This must be present, however, in a well rounded working patrolman.

Colma Youth To Win Eagle Scout Award

Robert W. Fernekes, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Fernekes, Sr., of 126 Village Lane, Garden Village, Colma, will be elevated to the rank of Eagle Scout, Scouting's righest and most coveted award, on Nov. 14, at the annual Scouters' recognition dinner at Westmoor High School.

Fernekes is a member of Troop 129, sponsored by the Hope Lutheran Church of Colma. Herbert Stettler is the Scoutmaster.

The badge will be presented by council advancement chairman, Guido Rozzi, and Ray Lichtenberg, northern district advancement chairman.

Robert was a Cub Scout three years in Pack 293 and has been a Scout in Troop 129 since 1959.

He has attended all of the council's three camps, Camp Pomponio, Camp El Barrer, and Camp Kit Carson.

He is a member of the Order of the Arrow, a camping honor society. He plans in 1962 to go to Philmont Scout ranch, a Mexico. He has camped from 120,000 acre ranch in New Death Valley, Calif., to Jasper in the Canadian Rockies.

He plans a career in medicine.

Panel Of Teachers

TEACHERS PANEL — Have you ever wondered what your high school boy or girl learn in art, music or photography? A panel of four teachers from the Jefferson High School faculty will explain and illustrate what they do in their classes in art, art materials, music and photography during the 3:15 p. m. meeting of the Jefferson High School PTA on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 9, in the school cafeteria. Teachers who will participate will be music instructor Gilbert Crane, art instructors Donald Carlson and Raymond Lorenzato and photo lab instructor Gil Toibin. Donal Behm, dean of boys, will act as moderator. All PTA members and their friends are invited to attend. Parents will have an opportunity to meet the teachers during the social hour following the meeting.

FIRE FACTS

(This column is written by Daly City firemen and will be published in this newspaper weekly with the main purpose of informing the public of pertinent information about their Fire Department.)

The Daly City Fire Department was officially organized on August 2, 1907, by 44 volunteer firemen under the suggestion of the town fathers. The same year, two hand-drawn, two-wheel wagons were appropriated but the most important item of fire fighting equipment was still the buckets. By 1913 the department had developed into five fire-fighting companies scattered in strategic positions to protect the rapidly growing community. In February, 1925, all firehouses and equipment, bought through the efforts of the members, were donated to the city and a salary of one dollar a year was granted to the firemen.

By 1934 the department, fully mechanized and surprisingly efficient for the times, was budgeted $5,000 a year for paid call salaries. This was the first real compensation to the firemen in the 27 years since the fire department was formed. By 1939 the department had advanced to such a state that the Fire Underwriters rated our volunteer department on the same level as the San Francisco Fire Department.

However, as the years passed and the town grew, the responsibility became too great for a totally volunteer fire department and plans were made for organizing a full-time paid department.

The paid department started in January, 1951, when the population had reached 15,000, with five men working five days a week, 10 hours a day. The volunteer organization stayed in effect and the paid personnel responded with them at night. In February, 1954, the 11 paid personnel began working 24-hour shifts in two paid fire stations with a total of four pieces of firefighting equipment. Today with the city's population over 45,000, the paid fire department operates 7 pieces of firefighting equipment with 39 paid personnel from three fire stations and the volunteer force of 32 men operate two engines from the two remaining volunteer stations.

In 1947 the average number of calls was about 14 a month, a far cry from the 28 calls the fire department responds to now in an average week. Last week, October 30 to November 5, this department responded to the following 34 alarms:

Clothing fires, 1; drier fires, 1; false alarms, 4; floods, 3; garbage can fires, 1; grass fires, 1; lockouts, 10, mattress fires, 1; oven fires, 1; pole fires, 1; Police Dept. assistance, 1; resuscitator calls, 1; rescue cats, 1; rubbish fires, 2; smoke scares, 2; wash downs, 1.

Letters To The Editor

Cites Need For Sidewalk On Southgate Ave.

The Editor:

Dear Sir:

From Windsor Drive to the back entrance to the Westlake Community Baptist Church along Southgate Avenue is a section of street which has no sidewalk and one is compelled to walk through sand, or walk in the street.

The street is dangerous and the sand gets into one's shoes (thru open toe shoes, which most elderly women wear). Why doesn't the city require the owner to put a sidewalk along this block?

Last evening about 7 p.m. (I was helping an elderly lady who has poor vision) coming east from the Baptist Church (dinner), an auto driver missed striking me with only inches to spare.

On Wednesdays an over-50 club meets at this church, and about 40 elderly people attend this meeting, many of whom have to walk along this block, either through the sand, or in the street.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Lyn Humphres,
139 Crestwood Drive,
Daly City.

Disaster Ham Stations Set

Frank Johnson, W6JWF, 175 East Vista Ave., Daly City, has been selected to set up an organization of Daly City amateur radio operators prepared to furnish organized emergency communications in time of disaster, according to Communications Manager F. E. Handy of the American Radio Relay League, national association of radio amateurs.

Johnson's assignment, which carries the title of Emergency Coordinator, is to band together members of the amateur radio service in his community to perfect arrangements for emergency radio communication by hams in the event of natural disasters or other emergencies. In addition to use of normal station equipment working from commercial power, amateur stations use self-powered radio transmitting and receiving equipment as needed.

Johnson, as ARRL emergency coordinator, will call local meetings of amateurs, establish common operating procedures, and arrange reguiar drill periods when the hams' personal stations may be mobilized under simulated emergency conditions. His duties also include liaison planning with the local chapter of the American Red Cross and other relief agencies. Liaison will be established also with local protective services, such as fire and police departments and civil defense communications will receive much attention.

In announcing the appointment, Handy pointed out that, "to be prepared for this function requires not only a highly organized program of preparedness locally, but hams outside the disaster area must be prepared to act as outlets and relay points for emergency traffic. Planning and organization are necessary in either eventuality and that is the job Johnson is doing for this area."

A New Selection Of Used Clothing At Family Fashion Fair

With a new selection of fine used clothing and household decorative items, the Family Fashion Fair will return to South San Francisco on Nov. 10 and 11 at 720 Linden avenue. Sale hours Friday will be 1 to 5 and Saturday 10 to 4.

The Family Service Agency of San Mateo County, which offers professional family counseling at 405 Grand avenue, South San Francisco, and in San Mateo at 1117 So. B street, benefits from the proceeds of the Family Fashion Fair.

Co-chairmen Mrs. Robert N. Whitehead and Mrs. Gean Graham have led a committee of north county women who have priced, cleaned and sorted the wares to be offered.

As yet no formal auxiliary has been organized to help support the Family Service Agency through means of these continuing monthly sales.

Others who would like to help the agency may contact Mrs. Whitehead at JU 8-8084.

'Youth Appreciation Week' Scheduled By Optimist Club

"Today's young people stand for decency, not delinquency. Let's enlist the citizens of Daly City in a program to give youth a pat on the back," Carl Davis, president of the Optimist Club of Lake Merced, told members as they passed a resolution to hold a Youth Appreciation Week program November 13-19.

The week long program will be dedicated to redeeming the reputation of the 95 per-cent of today's teenagers who do not get in trouble with the law. In addition to the Youth Appreciation Week program, Dr. Harry Roth, with the help of Charles Maroosis, Dr. John Gold and Walter Brodie, has plans in the near future for a coaster and soap box derby.

Some previous events sponsored by the Optimist Club were a kite flying contest headed by Louis Gazzano and Tony Newhoff and a bicycle safety check by Dave Adams and Frank D. Lamont. The oratorical contest winner from the local Optimist Club went on to participate and win the San Francisco zone contest thanks to the help of Dr. Charles Bates, Shelly Byers and Ken Fahy.

In 1960, over 1500 Optimist Clubs in the United States and Canada participated in Youth Appreciation Week, giving three million teenagers a "pat on the back." Optimist International is an 80,000 member men's service organization with 2000 clubs in the United States and Canada.

ORT Sabbath To Be Commemorated

The traditional ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through training) Sabbath which is participated by Women's American ORT, will be by the Northern Peninsula chapter on Friday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. at the Congregation B'nai Israel, 67 Los Banos, Daly City, with Rabbi Solomon Shore officiating.

ORT is a world-wide organization that gives vocational education and training to impoverished, unskilled, and uprooted Jews.

ORT Sabbath services in honor of its work are being sponsored on Nov. 17 in more than 200 Temples and Synagogues throughout the country by Women's American ORT, a nation-wide organizaton that gives support to the ORT program.

Bay View Rebekah Lodge Meets Nov. 9

Bay View Rebekah Lodge 317 IOOF will hold its regular meeting Thursday, Nov. 9 at Welcome Hall, Odd Fellows Temple, 26 Seventh street at 8 p.m. President of the Rebekah Assembly of California will make her official visit.

Eula Edwards, district deputy president of District 5, has arranged for a dinner at Del Webbs Towne House, Market street at Eighth street. Reservations should be made immediately with Mabel Wheeler, JU 6-1036.

OLYMPIA OFFICERS—Newly elected officers of Olympia School PTA, from left (front row) Mrs. Nicholas Budea, historian; Mrs. Clyde Sargent, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis Hess, president; Mrs. Leslie Mario, corresponding secretary. Jewish Education Director To Address Beth Israel Ladies

Dr. Daniel Hillel, acting director of the Bureau of Jewish Education, will be guest speaker at the monthly noon luncheon meeting of the Beth Israel Sisterhood on Monday, Nov 13, at the Temple House, 601 14th avenue.

Dr. Hillel's topic will be "The Cultural Partnership of Israel and the American Jewish Community."

Dr. Hillel, a recipient of a research grant from the Hebrew University to study soil problems, received his Ph.D. in 1956. Prior to this time, he studied soil chemistry at Rutgers University and worked for the United States Department of Agriculture in Kentucky.

In Israel, he participated in mapping the soil of that country as a member of the Ministry of Agriculture. His knowledge and experience led him to Burma, as a member of a four-man mission to study ways and means of developing and diversifying agriculture production in northeast Burma.

Dr. Hillel, in 1951, studied and conducted research at the Davis campus of the University of California.

He is at present continuing his scientific projects in the Bay Area. All members of the Congregation and Sisterhood are invited to attend.

Hope Lutherans Meet

Election of church officers for 1962 was one of the important items of business of the voters' assembly of Hope Lutheran Church, 55 San Fernando way, Daly City, at its quarterly meeting on Friday, Oct. 27. Also on the agenda was discussion of the congregation's budget for 1962.

Officers elected to serve in the coming year are: Grayson Kuehnert, chairman; Irving Espen, vice chairman; William Maches, secretary; Jinnin Worn, financial secretary; Ed Pringle, treasurer (re-elected); Dale Williams and Earl Marion, elders.

The 1962 budget for the church was approved as it had been submitted to the district, after preparation by the stewardship and finance committee some time ago. Possible changes that may be necessary after district review were discussed.

Discussion of plans and goals for the coming year was led by Pastor Paul R. Malte. Increased mission effort and emphasis on stewardship were among the goals under discussion.

Congregational chairman Al Wilson presided at the meeting.

Temple Judea Plans Events

This Friday evening, Nov. 10, Temple Judea will conduct Sabbath Eve services at Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue, at 8:30 o'clock. The "Joy" Youth Group of the Temple will participate in conducting the service. A special story sermonette will be told for children and parents alike. A birthday blessing for those born in the months of July through October and a special Oneg Shabbat (reception) for the children will take place.

BAR MITZVAH CEREMONY

Robin M. Rosenblatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rosenblatt, will celebrate his Bar Mitzvah at Temple Judea on Saturday, Nov. 11, 10:30 a.m. Rabbi Shapiro and Cantor Wachter will officiate at the service. Rabbi Shapiro will preach.

LUNCHEON-FASHION SHOW

The Sisterhood of Temple Judea invites all its members and friends of the community to attend the exciting luncheon and fashion show to be held at the Red Chimney in Stonestown on Wednesday, Nov. 8, 11:45 a.m. Fashions of original artistry by Mr. Howard Greer will be presented through the courtesy of the City of Paris; Mr. Murray Schneider will present knits for sport, daytime and cocktail wear. Sistehood membe Nikki Ross will model, along with the professional models.

HOLIDAY WORKSHOP

On Tuesday evening, Nov. 14, at 8 o'clock, a special sisterhood evening meeting will take place in the clubhouse adjoining the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue. The meeting will consist of workshops in preparation of the forthcoming holiday of Chanukah. Chanukah gifts will be on sale and an instructress will be available to demonstrate the creation of Chanukah foods and the wrapping of gifts. A most interesting program will ensue. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

MEN'S CLUB DINNER

Dr. Jack Elfant, president of Temple Judea Men's Club, announces a meeting for the men's club members and their wives only for Sunday evening, Nov. 19, 7 o'clock, in the clubhouse adjoining the Temple House, 95 South Mayfair avenue. A pot luck dinner has been arranged and the speaker of the evening will be a guest from Los Angeles who is the executive secretary of the West Coast Men's Club Association of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

Coffee Hour With The Rabbis Nov. 8

The second in the series of informal meetings with Rabbi Elliot Burnstein and Rabbi Moshe Tutnauer will be held Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 10 a. m. to noon at the Temple House, 601 14th avenue. Everyone is invited.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES

The two Sunday services of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church are scheduled for 9:30 and 11 a.m. The sermon this Sunday is "Living in an Atomic Age," by Rev. Herbert Tweedie. The sermon a week from Sunday will have a Thanksgiving theme.

The music for these worship services is prepared and rehearsed by Delmar Severy with the assistance of Mrs. Gloria Mattson at the organ. Severy directs the adult, youth and junior choirs. Anyone interested in joining these choirs is invited to phone Mr. Severy at MO 4-0850. Soloists with the choir the Mrs. Kay Mattson, Mrs. Dorothy Spratt and Mrs. Lelia Johnson. Mrs. Jack Spratt directs the Cherub Choir with Lynn Jones as accompanist.

The public is invited to these Sunday worship srvices.

WSCS Bazaar To Be Held November 15-16

Women's Society for Christian Service, Geneva Avenue Methodist Church, at Vienna street and Geneva avenue, will hold its annual bazaar on Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 15 and 16.

On Wednesday, the bazaar will be from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. Dinner will be served from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. at $1.75 per plate. On Thursday it will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; luncheon at noon at 75 cents per plate. Fancy work, aprons, flowers, novelties and homemade candy will be on sale.

There will also be a white elephant sale and a grab bag. Homemade foods will be on sale Thursday only.

Wee Little Church Helps Young Kids

Latest addition to the growing program of Westlake Community Baptist Church is "Wee Little Church." This new department will cater to needs of pre-school children, too old for nursery, during Sunday morning worship hour.

Not just another Sunday School class, "Wee Little Church" will include such learning activities as story time, hand crafts, music, educational games and moments of "wee worship." This provision for preworship hour is in keeping with school children during morning meaningful for persons of all plans of Westlake Community Baptist Church to make church ages. Already a baby room and a nursery room have been equipped and staffed for infants and toddlers.

"Little Church" for children in grades one through five has been meeting during worship hour for several months. Now, with the establishment of "Wee Little Church," there will be a complete worship experience afforded each age group.

Parents interested in having their children attend any of these special Sunday morning activities should enroll them personally any Sunday morning or should contact Pastor Hodges during the week at Westlake Community Baptist Church, located at Southgate and Elmwood in Daly City.

Sunday School classes for all ages continue to be held at 9:30 a. m. every Sunday morning preceding the various worship services which begin at 10:55 a. m.

St. Paul's WSCS Plan Harvest Dinner

Now that November is here members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of St. Paul's Methodist Church are busy with plans for their annual "Harvest Dinner" to be served to the general public in the Fellowship Hall of the church, Thursday, Nov. 16, 5:30 to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Bertram Nicholls, general chairman for selection and preparation of food, will be assisted by Mmes. Fred Curtis, Robert A. Lundy, and Joe Paron.

Mrs. John Rummell will oversee the dining room arrangements while Mrs. Elma Crouch and Mrs. E. E. Erdman will decorate the hall and tables. Mrs. Aldo Minucciani, 18 Eucalyptus Avenue, is chairman of the ticket committee. Tickets (adults $1.75, children 75c) may be purchased from any member of the WSCS or reservations made through Mrs. Minucciani.

COUNTY DOINGS

Rapid transit in San Mateo County seems to be about as much up in the air as the question of fallout.

A public hearing on the proposed rapid transit district participation of San Mateo County will be held Dec. 7 in the board of Supervisors Chambers in Redwood City.

City councils will file statements or resolutions of their stands on the rapid transit plan. And the board is expected to take final action on the matter following the hearing on whether or not San Mateo county will remain in the bay area rapid transit district.

School fallout shelters under athletic fields is the topic of discussion before the Sequoia Union High School and Redwood City elementary school districts.

The proposed shelter would provide for 480 youngsters in a 110 by 50 foot underground shelter with a nine-inch thick concrete roof.

Pacifica city councilmen have proposed a survey to bring all sub standard housing up to acceptable levels. They suggested a citywide survey of substandard buildings.

The council also went on record as favoring passage of Assembly Bill 3120 that would provide funds for purchase of Fort Funston immediately north of the county line in San Francisco as a state park.

"Never on Sunday" white collar pickets patrolled Daly City's two biggest auto agencies last Sunday. The pickets, about 160 strong, paraded in front of Gateway Chevrolet at 7400 Mission street and Neville Ford at 7360 Mission, handing out leaflets urging potential car buyers "to help bring union conditions to Peninsula auto salesmen."

The pickets demand the firms close on Sundays.

Laguna Salada Schools are competing with ice cream men. And they are not in a very good humor about the Good Humor men who come around selling ice cream between eight and nine in the morning. Children have been spending all their lunch money on the ice cream, and as a result, the schools have decided to sell snacks themselves and go into competition.

They are selling cakes, cupcakes, and cookies at lunch time along with the regular cafeteria meals.

South San Francisco city councilmen Monday opened bids for a long awaited project—a 286 smallcraft boat harbor at the end of Butler road. The state has granted a $575,000 loan for the project. Long range plans call for an extensive recreation area to include a nine-home municipal golf course, a day park, picnic area, a beach and play area.

Official grand opening was held Nov. 4 weekend for Westborough, a 3000 home subdivision in Northern San Mateo County. Westborough is being developed as a self-contained community under the jurisdiction of San Mateo County.

Italian Catholic Spiritual Activity Slated For Nov. 18

Officers and members of Branch No. 19 of the Italian Catholic Federation will sponsor a two day spiritual activity on Nov. 18 and 19. On this occasion, Reverend Vincent Bonomi, U.S.J., of the Federation's missionary band, will make his branch visitation.

Saturday, Nov. 18, Father Bonomi will hear confessions in Italian, and he will be the celebrant at the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday morning in Holy Angels Church in Colma.

Following mass, members of Branch 19 will join Father Bonomi at the El Rancho Motel in Millbrae, where the group will breakfast in the Valencia Room.

President Albert Teglia announces that anyone interested in making reservations for the breakfast may do so by calling the chairman at PL 5-7324 before Nov. 15.

Destroyer Duty

Carlos D. Goodwin, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy J. Goodwin of 623 Miller avenue, Pacifica, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Collett, home ported at Long Beach, Calif., which took part in the two-week international anti-submarine warfare exercise dubbed Operation "Sea Shell," which ended Oct. 13.

More than 10,000 men and 150 ships, submarines and aircraft of the U. S. Navy, Royal Canadian Navy and Royal Canadian Air Force joined in the combined U. S.-Canadian anti-submarine warfare capabilities and protect the large West Coast cities of both nations from possible submarine attack.

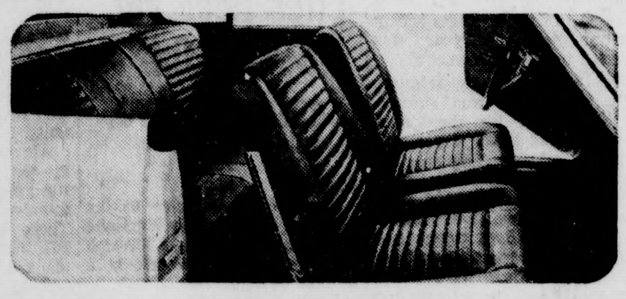
The one low-price compact that's every bit as lively as it looks—Valiant '62!



You're looking at the sports-loving compact car given an award of merit by the Society of Illustrators for design excellence! Come see it!

Unlike some compacts, Valiant will take off like a scared kitten at the drop of a "Scat!" You'd have to pay extra for an optional engine in most any other compact at Valiant's price to match Valiant's standard 101-hp Economy Six.

A modified version of this engine shot Valiant to victory over all American compacts competing in the 1960 and '61 Daytona Beach compact car competitions! Yet, for all its go, Valiant puts plenty of care-free miles between gas pumps. A Valiant scored 26.13 mpg in the last Mobilgas Economy Run!

And this new Valiant has the distinctive good looks to match its gumption. America's most famous artists recently honored the 1962 Valiant. For the first time in seven years, the Awards Committee of the Society of Illustrators has bestowed its coveted citation on a car—Valiant!

That's even more proof that the 1962 Valiant is indeed the Style Leader of the Compacts!

For looks and liveliness, you just can't match Valiant at Valiant's low initial price! And this year's Valiant offers a bundle of economy extras. Like half-as-often oil changes and almost-never 32,000-mile lubrication on major chassis points. See your Plymouth-Valiant dealer. Drive the low-price compact that's quality-engineered by Chrysler Corporation. Find out why . . .

Nobody beats VALIANT for value!

Puppy Writer Contest Begins

Want a puppy?

Then write yourself one.

Purebred beagle puppies — four of them — will wiggle their way into the hearts and homes of four Peninsula youngsters next month when the final results of the San Mateo Kennel Club's "Why I Would Like a Purebred Beagle Pup" contest are announced at the club's 58th annual All Breed Dog Show and Obedience Trials Nov. 19 at the San Mateo County Fairgrounds.

But these puppies are no ordinary pooches. They are bred from the finest hunting and show stock available especially for the club by the famed Ultra-Mend Kennels of Mountain View. Each pup is worth $75.

"We're hoping to stimulate youngsters' interest not only in providing a good home for the pups, but in the breeding and training of champion dogs," William F. Fox, director of the upcoming Kennel Show, said today.

Entry letters, addressed to the San Mateo Kennel Club, 1299 Bayshore Highway, Burlingame, are already coming in.

Judges admitted being a bit puzzled by occasional references to the purebred hunting dogs as being "wuzzy." But they decided the word must be a small-fry combination of "warm" and "fuzzy."

The contest, open to youngsters throughout the area, promises to add a light touch to the serious, although entertaining, competition in the nationally-ranked show. More than 2,000 purebred dogs from all over the Western United States will compete for 400 trophies and prizes.

Burch, Finnigan Vows Are Taken

Anita Gene Burch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Finnigan of Montara, was married October 28 in Carson City, Nev., to Robert K. Donnelly of South San Francisco.

The bride graduated in 1959 from Jefferson High School, attended San Mateo College and Heald's Business School in San Francisco. The couple will reside at 1424 Valencia street in San Francisco.

Scouters To Be Recognized At Awards Dinner

Many local Scouters will be given Council-wide recognition for outstanding performance with the Boy Scouts of America, Nov. 14, at the annual meeting of the Northern District Scouters of the San Mateo County Council at Westmoor High School cafeteria.

The awards to be presented include the Scouter's awards and Scouter's keys for minimum of three years' service and for meeting the required training.

Den mothers, too, will receive den mothers' awards for serving at least two years and taking basic training, additional training, and attending the "pow-wow."

Commissioners will receive the arrowhead honor for outstanding performance in service to Scout units.

Veteran awards will be given to Scouters for 10, 15, and 20 years of service (note: Dr. J. C. McGovern has been a registered Scouter for 50 years).

FIRST CLASS

First class certificates will be issued to units who have attained 40 per cent of the Scouts to first class rank.

Camping awards will be given to units who have met the national camping requirements of at least 10 days and nights of camping during the year.

The highlight of the evening will be the surprise award of the "Order of Merit" which will be presented to two Scouters who have, in the estimation of the awards committee, served Scouting far beyond their normal responsibilities. The following Scouters are present holders of the Order of Merit: Robert Coss, Harold Monozon, Ray Stull, Herbert Stettler, Victor Rosa Jr., Harold Humber, Raymond Lamperti, James Wilson, Elmer Wieler, K. Dean Knight, Myra Paulsen, and William Caldwell.

SILVER BEAVER

On occasion, when a local Scouter merits, the national council also presents the silver Beaver. This is the highest award given at the council level to Scouters for outstanding work in the unit, district, and council.

The names of the recepients of this award are known only to the selections committee, and are not revealed until the moment of presentation. Holders of the Silver Beaver are Dr. J. C. McGovern, Rev. Robert A. Lundy and Harold Monozon.

Among the presentors of awards are Lawrence L. Johnson, council president; Earl F. Schmidt Jr., council executive; John Montgomery, council commissioner; Ray Stull, district commissioner; James Keane, district chairman; Guido Rozzi, council advancement chairman; district Scouters, Ray Lichtenberg, Chairman K. Dean Knight, Colonel William McClaren, Edward Rodondi, Harrold Cockran.

Harold Monozon will be master of ceremonies, arrangements were made by District Executive Ernest N. Casados.

Two-hundred Scouters are expected to attend.

Fall Cleanup — Make It A Family Affair

If fall cleanup in the garden seems a chore and otherwise bores you, you're not alone. Gardeners have approached it reluctantly since there have been gardens to clean up. But the effort is worth every minute of it come next spring.

Fall cleanup is necessary — not only to neatness, but to a healthy garden. Left to lie, fallen leaves are apt to harbor pests and spent annuals or perennials are a potential source of plant diseases.

DOWNRIGHT ENJOYABLE

Moreover, when approached on one of those glorious days which are typical of California's late fall, the garden cleanup can be downright enjoyable. Choose such a day and make it a family affair. Youngsters might not appreciate it now, but the memory of burning leaves and brisk sunshine will draw them back to the garden in future years.

As a starting "chore," rake all leaves out of flower beds and shrub borders. Most of these can go on the compost pile if you have one, but any that are mildewed or otherwise afflicted should be burned.

Rose leaves should not be composted. Burn or donate them to the local dump. The same goes for dead and spotted leaves from the Iris bed. Get them out of the garden.

Next, cut back faded annuals and perennials. Delphiniums, Dahlias and perennial Phlox are apt to carry mildew spores and should be burned. Annuals and other perennials that are obviously "clean" can go into making compost.

KEEP BEGONIAS DRY

Lift tuberous Begonias when their tops begin to die back. Let them finish the drying process out of the ground until the stems separate easily from the tubers. Never let the tuber winter over in the ground where either frost or wetness could do it in. Begonia tops are not for the compost pile, either.

When the general cleanup is done, the California Association of Nurserymen suggests turning your attention to improving the soil and planting new bedding plants.

Commercial soil conditioners combined with manure and bonemeal will do wonders for compacted soils over the winter. And a generous helping of manure in all plant beds and around shrubs is like money in the bank. It will return a dividend of healthier plants and better bloom.

INDUSTRY IS BIG BUYER

The motor vehicle industry in the United States purchases nearly six billion dollars worth of goods produced by other industries in a single year, plus vast quantities of steel, rubber, leather and other raw materials, reports the National Automobile Club.

There will be 25 different game booths. Some of the headlining games are dime pitch, ring toss, fish pool, grab bag and baskeball toss.

In charge of the day are Mrs. Ralph Dunshee, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Graham Rumble, assistant, and Mrs. Fred Krahl.

Pizza, hot dogs, coffee and soft drinks will be sold in the cafeteria for lunch customers.

Five DC Men Receive CPA

The California State Board of Accountancy recently granted 191 Californians certificates as Certified Public Accountants.

Candidates qualify for the certificate by successfully passing a two and one-half day examination in theory of accounting, accounting practice, auditing, and commercial law.

The examination is prepared by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the national organization of Certified Public Accountants.

Thief Gets Away

A burglar made off with $2,364 worth of cash and personal articles from the residence of Ben and Rose Garlnick, 19 Mar Vista, Daly City, last week.

Ben Garlnick reported that someone, using a bar to pry open his basement window, broke into his home and proceeded to ransack the house. Garlnick, a cab driver, was away at work at the time.

A partial fingerprint was obtained from a search of the basement.

Rites Held Wednesday For Mary T. Menoni

Funeral services were held Nov. 8 from the mortuary of W. C. Lasswell & Co. for Mary T. Menoni of 45 Reiner street, Colma, who died Nov. 4 in Notre Dame Hospital in San Francisco.

Requiem High Mass was held at Holy Angels Church, Colma. Entombment was held at Italian Cemetery, Colma.

A resident of Daly City for 37 years, and a native of Illinois, she was a member of Bartenders and Culinary Workers Union Local 340.

She was a daughter of the late Carlo S. and Julia Menoni; sister of Pearl Pastarino and Ida Bevignani of Chicago; aunt of Rudy and Cecilia Bevignani; great aunt of Debra and Larry Gregory and sister-in-law of Frank Bevignani.

Retirement Plan For Legislators Is Clarified

Legislators who had retired before September 15, 1961, are entitled to the increases in maximum allowance provided by an amendment to the Government Code in the 1961 session of the Legislature, ruled Attorney General Stanley Mosk today.

The recent amendment calls for the payment of an allowance equal to 5 per cent of the salary currently being paid legislators, multiplied by years of service, but not to exceed 15 years. In excess of 15 years a Legislator will receive 2 per cent of the current salary.

As the new section, 9359.1, Government Code, "does not, even by implication, exclude persons already retired the more liberal benefit provided under the 1961 amendment is applicable to persons already retired," states the opinion.

"To avoid any misunderstanding it should be mentioned that the increase is confined to legislators. Constitutional officers, who are also eligible for membership in the Legislators' Retirement System are not affected thereby," concludes the opinion.

Request for clarification was made by the Board of Administration, State Employees' Retirement System. Deputy Attorney General William J. Power of Sacramento prepared the ruling.

TWO WINNERS — SAME CLASS

For the first time since the Daly City Fire Prevention Poster Contest began, both first and second place prizes were won by members of the same class.

Children claiming these prizes were members of Mrs. A. O'Connell's second-third grade class at Jefferson Elementary School in Daly City.

Xmas Decoration Class Offered

Who will have the most original and creative Christmas decorations on your block? This we cannot predict, but those people who attend the Christmas Decorations class, instructed by South San Francisco High School Art teacher, Don Stupfel, will rate high. Mr. Stupfel is prepared to offer creative suggestions for decorations inside and outside of your home. Special projects can be developed to meet special situations. Meeting time: Every Monday, 7-10 p.m. at South San Francisco High School, Room D-28, until December 11.

FEES SLASHED

Registration fees at S. San Francisco Adult School slashed by one-half for all classes in session, except Driver Education and Training, and newly initiated classes. This reduced registration will continue through November and December.

Man Runs Down Bus . . . The Hard Way

Louis Arroyo, Jr., 22, of 828 West Orange avenue, San Francisco, literally "ran down" a bus last week in front of Jim's Donut Shop, 6288 Mission street.

He came out of the doughnut shop and ran out into the street to catch a Greyhound bus, and rammed his head into the right front door of the vehicle. The young man refused treatment for a cut left ear, and went home on the bus, slightly bruised.

Nov. 30 Appreciation Dinner For Scouters

Annual Scouters' Appreciation dinner of the San Francisco Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Thursday, Nov. 30, at 7 p. m. in the Hall of Flowers, Golden Gate Park, it was announced by Dick Ross, local district Scout executive.

Silver Beaver awards will be presented to nine veteran Scouters for distinguished service to boyhood.

This year's dinner will be catered and will be limited to only 900 for the entire council. Ross said that the local Scout district has only 128 tickets. Tickets will be available from district Scout officers as long as the supply lasts.

Robert Evans, 325 Higate avenue, is the ticket chairman for the Daly City-Colma area of the Lake Merced district.

According to James Fontaine of the special services of the American Foundation for the Blind, more than 20,000 blind people in the United States avail themselves of the concession granted by railroad and bus passenger companies, permitting a blind person to travel accompanied by a seeing person, at a cost below the normal charge for two people, in the past year.

Tigers Show Strength vs Powerful Hillsdale Team

In a game that never figured to be much of a contest, league-leading and undefeated Hillsdale defeated Terra Nova on the losers' field last Friday, 28-6.

The powerful Knights, rolling toward an undefeated season, were led by the fine running of halfbacks Don Leydig and Bob Futterer, and the pinpoint passing of quarterback Ray Plate.

Even so, there was some solace for Terra Nova in defeat. For the first time the Tigers held someone to under 30 points, and they also became only the second team that has been able to score on the impressive Knights.

The score could have been worse. A raft of penalties slowed down the Hillsdale machine on a couple of occasions, and Coach Dick Vermeil's intentional substitutions, allowing some of the reserves to play, probably kept things more even than they might have been.

Final statistics showed 282 total yards for the Knights and 198 for the Tigers. In first downs the Tigers did even better, running up 12 to the Knights total of 14.

All in all, the Tigers can be proud of their showing against the probable champs of the league. Behind the running of Dennis Caruthers and the Katona to Isnor passing combination, the men from Terra Nova showed that when they want they can move the ball against anyone.

Shop Center Gives Away New Home

Mr. and Mrs. William Hay of 92 Montebello in Daly City were the winners of the three bedroom, two bath house given away by Alec Membership Shopping Center as part of the grand opening.

The drawing was held the evening of Oct. 30 with approximately 5,000 members in attendance. Halloween favors were given to the children, and eight prizes were awarded to Alec members.

Among the other winners were Charles J. Cabral who won a five piece dinette set, Mrs. George W. Pope who won a Westinghouse Electric Blanket, James E. Grey who won a sleeping bag, Ernest G. Lowenthal who won a bridge table set, Louise Marcia who won a table lamp, Mrs. Robert Elliott who won a movie screen, James G. Habeeb who won a fishing tackle box, and K. Roberts who won an auto floor mat.

Alec Membership Shopping Center is located at 255 D Street in Colma, just off Junipero Serra, near the Serra Bowl. A complete shopping center, Alec opened early in September.

Its most unusual feature as a membership shopping center is its complete supermarket, the first of its kind in Northern California. While you must be a member to join, the general public is invited to browse around the store.

LINCOLN PTA MEETS NOV. 14

The next regular meeting of the Abraham Lincoln PTA will take place on Nov. 14 at 2:30 p. m. in the school library.

Mrs. Richard Newton, parent education chairman, will introduce the guest speaker, Jack Danielson, district director for J. E. S. D., who will speak on special services of school districts.

A buzz session, led by the primary grade teachers, will develop thoughts and present them to Danielson in a question and answer period.

A financial report on the carnival will be read.

This afternoon meeting is expected to bring together those parents who are not able to attend regular evening meetings.

Faithful Navigator-elect Joseph L. (Bud) Capurro will be the Charter Faithful Navigator of the Assembly. He also has the distinction of being the Charter Grand Knight of Marian Council, Daly City, and the first District Deputy from Marian Council.

Faithful Navigator-elect Capurro has appointed Robert C. Simon as public relations director of the assembly. Bob has been the public relations director of Marian Council for the past four years, and last year was co-chairman of Fra Crespi general assembly's publicity committee.

A SEARCH THAT NEVER ENDS

All of us are familiar, to some extent, with the extraordinary progress made in medicine in the last generation or so, and with the dedicated efforts that are under way to open up new frontiers of knowledge, and to find the cures to yet unconquered maimers and killers.

And modern developments in fields which may seem totally disassociated from medicine have brought new problems to the medical fraternity — and have created a need for research and evaluation.

Take, for instance, the agenda of the American Medical Association's 15th Clinical meeting, which is to be held in Denver at the end of November. Medical aspects of such American habits as the coffee break, the cocktail hour, auto driving and family pets will be discussed. Another section of the meeting will explore the use of electronics and computers in medicine. With increasing use of nuclear reactors, physicians may soon face the problem of treating injuries from radiation accidents, and this subject will be examined in a series of scientific papers. The virus will be the subject of another series of papers. And attention will be focused on heredity as it relates to human ills, and the knowledge gained by specialists in space medicine will be relayed to practicing physicians.

So it goes. The search for medical knowledge never ends — and the results of that eternal searching bring inestimable benefits to tens of millions of us.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

The alumni president of a college fraternity recently said that certain obligations must be kept by those who believe in our way of life or it will "be completely swept aside by the mass movement of creeping apathy which is developing in our country." As a convincer, he added "the average life of a democracy is 200 years, an dthere are only approximately 20 years left on our lease."

This gentleman was using the above remarks to inspire his fraternity brothers to take a greater interest in their organization by attending an alumni meeting. But his words could well have been addressed to the nation.

Public interest in individual opportunity and free enterprise must be maintained at the grassroots level if we are to prevent loss of our liberties through apathy toward centralization of government.

It's News To Vets

Q.—Can a veteran be advised as to his general non-medical benefits while he is a patient at a VA hospital?

A.—Yes. Each VA hospital has a contact representative as a full-time member of the hospital staff to serve veterans in just such a capacity.

Q.—Are veterans now returning to or entering the service given an opportunity to take out GI life insurance?

A.—No, GI insurance policies are no longer being issued.

Q.—What was the average number of patients treated in VA hospitals last year?

A.—The latest figures are available for Fiscal Year 1961, which ended June 30, 1961. The Veterans Administration treated an average of 111,351 patients daily during this period.

Q.—I understand patients in VA hospitals must provide their own personal comfort items. What are "comfort items?"

A.—Comfort items are articles an individual normally requires in his everyday needs, such as shaving cream, toothbrushes, razor blades, hair tonic, etc.

Operation Deepfreeze

Roger Soomann, fireman, USN, son of Mrs. J. E. Soomann of 259 Oliver street, Daly City, is serving aboard the icebreaker USS Burton Island, en route to Christchurch, New Zealand, to participate in Operation Deepfreeze 62 in Antarctica.

Although the ship has taken part in four Deepfreeze operations, it recently made its first call in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, on its way south. The crow found the subtropic climate quite a contrast to the frozen weather awaiting them.

DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

These brisk days encourage big appetites. And how nice it is to wind up a hike, or a ride, or a round of golf with a good hot drink and a just-baked wedge of cake. Our Hawaiian Upside-down Cake is just right to cheer a hungry family . . . or bake 'n broil a honey of a warm-up cake to please a whole gang of neighbors. We bet they'll love you for it.

Cake-of-the-week:
HAWAIIAN UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE
Prepare a layer pan, 8 or 9x1½". In an 8 or 9" sq. pan, melt ¼ cup butter over low heat. Stir in ½ cup brown sugar (packed). Arrange 1 can (13½ oz.) crushed pineapple, well drained, and ½ cup flaked coconut over sugar mixture. Make batter as directed on Betty Crocker Toasted Coconut Cake Mix pkg. Pour half of batter over fruit in pan, half in other pan. Bake upside-down cake about 35 min. at 350°. Invert at once onto serving plate. Let pan remain over cake a minute, so sugar mixture will run down over cake. Serve warm with plain or whipped cream. Bake other layer as directed on package and ice as desired.

Family favorite:
COUNTRY LOAF CAKE
Plain or fancy treat! Make batter as directed on Betty Crocker Marble Cake Mix pkg. — except reduce water to 1 cup. Bake in two greased and floured loaf pans, 9x5x3", 35 to 40 min. at 350°. (Do not use smaller loaf pans.) Cool and slice —for a luscious lunch-box surprise; or top slices with ice cream and sauce for a family-favorite dessert.

Warm and wonderful welcome home:
BAKE 'N BROIL CAKE
Bake Betty Crocker Honey Spice Cake Mix in oblong pan, 13x9½x2". While warm, spread with Topping: Mix 3 tbsp. soft butter, 3 tbsp. hot water, 1 tbsp. light corn syrup thoroughly into 1 pkg. Betty Crocker Carmel Fudge Frosting Mix. Stir in 1 cup flaked coconut, and ½ cup chopped nuts. Broil 3" from heat 2 to 3 min. And next time, choose another Betty Crocker Cake Mix and another Betty Crocker Frosting Mix — to make your own special Bake 'n Broil Cake. So simple — and so very good.

ART GUILD OF PACIFICA EXHIBITS WORK AT WESTLAKE LIBRARY

An artist stands with brush in front of her blank empty canvas.

She stares and stares and something comes.

Why for some and not for others?

"Painting is to take an idea that you have and can't make clear in any other way and express it."

Connie Grout, pretty, smiling member of the Art Guild of Pacifica tried her hand at putting that idea into words, and did so quite well.

The guild is currently exhibiting the works of its many members at the Westlake branch of the Daly City Public Library. The exhibit will remain on display through the month of November. All pictures are for sale.

One of her paintings is a misty ethereal scene called Autumn Frost. The blended greens and yellows give a light airy feeling.

"Doing something like that you think first what colors would pit it over best," Connie said. "Color is very essential to the feeling. If the emotion of the artist does not come across through the canvas, the painting is a failure."

The guild's display features the works of many of the area's prominent artists. It is a growing group that has expanded to include members not only of Pacifica and Daly City, but other areas in San Mateo County. Membership, according to Luther Spraker, the guild's president, is open to any nearby resident who likes to paint.

The club meets during the month at Sea Bowl Alley in Pacifica.

Officers of the guild include: Spraker, Roberta Ewald, Bob Southworth and Virginia Podesta. Interested artists can call Luther Spraker, FL 5-5735, or attend the guild's next meeting at Sea Bowl on Nov 13, at 8 p. m.

Westlake Students At UNESCO Meet

Westlake students Geoffrey Becker, David Martinelli, Richard Zawilski and Sheldon Klein attended the 10th Annual Junior UNESCO Conference in Millbrae, Oct. 27, as representatives from the school student body. The conference was organized by the intermediate schools of San Mateo County.

Highlights of the program were: Exhibition display of flags of other countries, an Esperanto lesson, a film called "Assignment Education, Dances of Many Lands" by a group of Taylor students, and an interesting talk by Dr. Norton Benner, who told of his travels in Indonesia.

He said the United States has helped Indonesia by sending medicine-carrying ships to cure and help the sick and by bringing some of them back to this country for treatment. Russia, also, is trying to help Indonesia by building a hospital, but the Indonesian people want the United States to send them doctors and nurses.

Authorities To Speak At Teachers' Meet

Leading authorities will speak on education in a meeting of the San Mateo County Teachers' Association on Wednesday, Nov.. 8. Theme of the conference is "Teach for Tomorrow."

The 4 to 9 o'clock conference will take place at State Headquarters of the CTA, 1705 Murchism drive, Burlingame.

The program will include:

"Teacher Citizen," by Roy Archibalk, legislative consultant for the National Education Association.

"Teacher Communication," by Jefferson Elementary School District Superintendent Richard Foster.

"How Are Schools Financed," by Dr. William O'Dell, of Stanford University, leading professor of education.

"Parent-Teacher Conferences," led by Miss Viola Owen, curriculum consultant at the county offices.

"Programmed Instruction — Automated Learning," by Dr. James Popham, of San Francisco, authority on teaching machines.

"Creativity and the Educational Processes," by Frank Williams, professor of the institute of Creative Education at San Jose State.

REHABILITATION CENTERS FOR BLIND ARE STARTED

The rehabilitation center movement for blind people is of comparatively recent origin, having started in the mid '40s, according to the American Foundation for the Blind.

Daniel Webster Goes To Opera

Thirty children from Daniel Webster Elementary School, under the supervision of Thomas Notaro, fourth and fifth grade teacher, attended the San Francisco Opera production of Verde's "Rigoletto."

Last year the children in Notaro's room studied opera as a special project. The children learned several operas, ranging from traditional to modern. Because these children have this background of opera, they had been chosen as the elementary school class from Jefferson district to attend the live opera performance.

Among those who attended were Tom Horton, Edward Vasile, Dyann Duling, Cynthia, Grubbs, Rudy Lacayo, Roger Casias, Susan Vieira, Joyce Fickert, Carlice Solovieff, John Reuter, Gary Bliss, Annette Reed, Margaret Morse, Rae Durand, Steve McGuigan, Lisa Church,

Dominic Fontana, Darlene Lewkowitz, Jack Mingram, Valerie Garland, Armando Gonzales, Sharon Rudolph, David McClay, Linda Katuna, Rosemary MacFarland, Janice Alden, Peggy Cotter, Gale Bracisco, Pamela Sangervasi and Cynthia LaRosa.

Robert N. Langland, machinists' mate first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Langland of 24 Wilms;

Kermit R. Pewitt, airman, USN, son of Mrs. Mereidia J. Rydell of 759 Alta Loma drive;

Donald D. Romero, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Romero of 288 Avalon drive, all of South San Francisco, are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ranger which arrived in Yokosuka, Japan, on Oct. 23, for a 14-day visit.

Since the Ranger joined the powerful Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific in September, it has visited such Japanese cities as Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto and Nagasaki, and welcomed thousands of Japanese visitors in Sasebo and Kobe.

This is the third Far East tour for the ship, the largest aircraft carrier in the Pacific. It is homeported at Alameda, Calif.

Olympia School News

The kindergarten classes of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mrs. Alice von der Mehden treated the rest of Olympia School on Halloween day with a delightful musical performance.

Wearing orange and black hats they had made and trimmed themselves, they played their rhythm instruments, sang songs and recited in chorus. The other classes then sang Halloween songs and recited for the kindergarten boys and girls.

Marines With Aircraft Unit

Marine Lance Cpl. Larry W. McGinness and Lance Cpl. Garry D. McGinness, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McGinness of 53 Thea avenue, Daly City, are serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing at the El Toro Marine Corps Station, Santa Ana, Calif.

The wing provides helicopters, transports and jets in support of infantrymen of the First Marine Division at nearby Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Icebreaker Duty

Doyle A. Nichless, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyde A. Nickless of 91 Santa Elena street, Daly City, is serving in the Pacific aboard the navy icebreaker USS Staten Island operating out of Seattle.

The Staten Island was scheduled to depart for San Diego on Oct. 31 for three weeks of fleet training maneuvers.

Bethel 26 To Meet

Bethel 26 of the International Order of Job's Daughters will hold its next regular meeting on Friday, Nov. 10.

The place is Mission Masonic Temple, 2668 Mission street and the proceedings will begin at 7:30 p.m.

There will be entertainment and refreshments following the meeting.

Step Number 2

The bay area rapid transit plans are now in the hands of county supervisors. On Nov. 1, engineering and financial details of the 103-mile system were submitted to boards of supervisors in Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

The supervisors must ratify the plan before the people may vote on it. Residents of the bay area can look forward to a series of rapid transit public hearings as the supervisors sound out the public on this issue.

Public hearings will be held from Nov. 27 to Dec. 26 as part of the supervisors' plan of study. An initial vote on the plan by the supervisors will be held before Jan. 10, 1962.

If ratified by all the boards, the bond issue will be presented to voters on the state primary ballot on June 5, 1962.

Senior Citizens Halloween Party

At their last weekly meeting before Halloween, the Westlake Senior Citizens group made a special effort to have the meeting like an old fashioned Halloween party. The hall was decorated in the Halloween theme while goblins danced to Halloween music.

This group meets weekly at Southgae avenue near Elmwood drive. The members bring their own lunch, tea, coffee and dessert are served. Games are played.

Singing and music, needlecraft, knitting, chocheting and Christmas decoration work, and ceramic work are also enjoyed.

For further information, call Mrs. Beatrice Batz, WY 2-3980.

Children's Fashions

Children's fashions will be one of the features of the Catholic Church of the Good Shepherd fashion show.

The models will be Joann Brownmiller, Kathy Haas, Christine Malta, Livi Suez, Dale Valdez, Jimmy Boyle, Timmy Shannon and Mark Valentine, under the direction of Nita Buchanan and Ann Torrigino.

It will be held at Nick's Rockaway Restaurant in Pacifica. Tickets are $2.75 for the luncheon which will be held at 1:30 and $2.25 for the dessert showing that will start at 8 p.m.

Tickets for the fashion show may be obtained by phoning Ethel Forgie at FI 5-3510 and for the drawing by calling Pat Harrington at FL 5-3153. All profits will go to the church building fund.

ST. MICHAEL'S MOTHERS' CLUB

Lawrence Lawson, professor of criminology at San Francisco City College, will be the principal speaker at the Nov. 13 meeting of St. Michael's Mothers Club.

Lawson, formerly with the juvenile bureau of the San Francisco police department, will be introduced by the program chairman, Mrs. Robert S. Baker.

A Father and Daughter dinner will be the highlight of the next meeting of St. Michael's Fathers' Club on Thursday, Nov. 16.

A short business meeting, beginning at 6:30 p. m., will precede the dinner.

Brownie Scouts Hold Investiture

Twelve Westlake girls have been invested into the Brownie Scouts on Tuesday October 31 at the home of the Leader Anita Bush, 41 Hillsdale Ave., where future meetings of Troop 182 will be held. The leader Anita Bush and co-leader Gloria McDermott did a wonderful job at preparing the children for the investure ceremony. The names of the twelve girls are:

Nancy Benone, Marianne Bush, Susie Dullea, Pat Ghiselli, Kathy Lamp, Diane Lipman, Joan McDermott, Michaelle Nessier, Karen O'Neill, Debbie Ostrow, Debra Ross, Judy Weingarten.

Air Force Assignment

WAF Airman Third Class Christina N. Speck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Speck of 215 Berendos avenue, Pacifica, is being assigned to Lackland AFB, Texas, for practical training as a medical services specialist. She recently completed United States Air Force basic military training.

Airman Speck is a graduate of Westmoor High School in Daly City.

Gardener's Checklist

1—Perennials for bloom next spring and summer should still be at the top of your planting list.

2—Cool weather vegetables should be set out at the earliest date. A few many be available as started seedlings in nurseries this month.

3—Check ties on tree roses and climbing roses to be sure they are secured against winter weather.

4—Uproot roses that need replacing and work the soil with steer manure. Prepare new planting holes for new varieties of roses to go in next month.

5—Cut Chrysanthemums to the ground when they have stopped blooming. Leave stakes to indicate where the plants are, and mark them to show what variety they are.

A Bright Spot Near House Is Nice In Winter

There's nothing nicer in winter than to have bright color close in by the house. Whether in an entrance planting bed, a container on the deck, a window box or a row of pots inside a picture window, it's worth some extra time and effort to have around.

If you would brighten a winter dull spot in or around your house, start right now. Prepare and plant sunny beds to annuals. Select containers for porch or deck. Build a window box if you have no other space. And certainly pot up whatever color will grow in pots inside a sun-drenched window.

Here, if you need ideas, are a few passed on by the California Association of Nurserymen.

Cyclamen. This winter gem can be a bright spot in the garden or in the house. It will provide a continuous succession of flowers that often lasts well into spring. Nurserymen offer seedling plants in flats, ready-to-bloom or blooming plants in pots.

In mild-winter climates, sink blooming pots of Cyclamen in the border much as you would Tuberous Begonias. Or grow them in a bright window. Give them the same care you would a Tuberous Begonia.

Pansies and Violas. In a sunny, well-drained bed these bedding plant cousins have no peers for brightness. Plant them by the flat this month, using leaf mold to provide perfect soil conditions. They are also to be planted in containers and window boxes.

Keep the faded flowers picked (or better yet, pick them before they fade for bouquets) and they'll bloom through spring.

Bird of Paradise. This striking tropical "bird" is apt to bloom in any season, but during winter and spring it's at its best. Inland it requires protection from frost, but near the coast, it can be grown outside a picture window, or in a tub for one of the season's brightest shows.

Other possibilities include: Geraniums for indoor bloom in a sunny window; Cinerrarias, potted in window boxes, or grown as bedding plants; Alyssum in a bed or in a box; and, of course, the ever-present Chrysanthemums which can be bought in bloom for 12 months of every year.

Child's Emotional Needs Subject Of Talk at Vista Mar

Rounding out the six week series entitled "The Emotional Needs of the Pre-School Child" will be two more lectures scheduled for Monday nights, Nov. 13 and Nov. 20.

Sponsored jointly by the YWCA of North San Mateo County and the Vista Mar PTA, the classes meet at the Vista Mar School at 725 Southgate avenue, Westlake, from 8 to 9:30 p. m.

For the evening of Nov. 13, Mrs. Della Gillett from San Francisco State College will speak on one of the most important phases of a child's life, "How to Prepare Your Child for Kindergarten." This is especially pertinent to parents who will have a child entering kindergarten in the coming year.

For the last meeting, on Nov. 20, Dr. Bernice Madison from the School of Social Walfare at San Francisco State College will present a resume of the entire program, including a discussion of pre-schoolers around the world.

There will be a question and answer period at 9 p. m. after each lecture. Vista Mar PTA President, Mrs. Jesse West, extends a sincere welcome to all of the parents of pre-school children in the community to come and participate in the discussions.

Azaleas Bloom Happily This Time Of Year

It's been said about California that our fall is just like having spring all over again. And from the standpoint of garden bloom, this is so true. You see Azaleas, Camellias and many another supposed spring standby blooming happily away this time of year.

If you are Azalea minded, this means extra pleasure when you garden in California. Drop in on a member of the California Association of Nurserymen this month and you'll find some favorite Indica hybrids doing their best to spread the illusion of spring. What's more, they'll continue blooming right through winter and into spring.

COLD MAY DISCOURAGE

We'll not attempt to explain this phenomenon, merely be grateful for it. And, of course, use it to our advantage.

There are areas where winter cold discourages the continued bloom of Azaleas, but even in these situations, the protection of lath, overhead boughs or an overhanging roof will help to keep things going. Your local CAN member can give you pointers in regard to this.

In setting Azaleas out, wherever you live and in whatever season, the two most important planting rules are: to provide good drainage and to use an acid soil. Many gardeners plant Azaleas in pure peat moss and they love it. Be sure, however, that the peat is wet at planting time and that it never dries out.

PROVIDE FOOD, MOISTURE

The two most important steps after planting are to provide adequate food and moisture. So long as drainage is good, you really can't over water these moisture loving shrubs. Winter rains are often sufficient, but any prolonged dry spell during the coming months should be a warning to drag out the hose and water Azaleas.

Feeding does wonders to promote bloom, fuller growth and healthier looking plants. Use an acid food at least twice a year after bloom and supplement this with frequent light applications of fish emulsion or a wettable complete food. Should none of this green up light-colored foliage, use an iron chelate and you'll know success for sure.

College Preview For Westmoor Students

Preview of college life greeted 11 students from Westmoor High School on Oct. 28 when they attended the High School Symposium at the University of California in Berkeley.

Sponsored by the college panhellenic association and interfraternity council, the symposium was open to honor students from northern California high schools. The purpose of the symposium was to introduce promising young students to the major fields of study open to prospective scholars. Humanities, biological sciences, physical sciences, and the social sciences were the topics discussed.

Westmoor students at the University of California for the symposium were John Johnston, Richard Hunter, Darwin Hennings, Terry Bayle, Carla Gomez, Lucinda McSweeney, Lee Baldelli, James Lucke, Pat Colman and Don Bosberry.

Attending a general meeting in the Cal Student Union, these honor students from Westmoor listened to talks by Wendell M. Stanley, Henry N. Smith, Samuel A. Schaaf and Raymond J. Sontag, each prominent in his field.

Sororities and fraternities then played host to small groups of visitors at luncheons served at the sorority and fraternity houses. Westmoorites enjoyed lunch at Phi Mu Sorority.

Dividing into groups according to their major interests, students then toured the buildings that most reflected their interest. Physical science adherents visited the radiation laboratory, while students interested in biological sciences saw the virus laboratory.

After several hours of sightseeing, all visitors gathered in the University of California's famous Greek theater to hear Dr. Garff B. Wilson speak on Cal history traditions and living.

Annual Beth Israel Sisterhood Luncheon

Mrs. Samuel Alhadeff, chairman, has reported that reservations for the donor luncheon are reaching a successful proportion. All proceeds from the luncheon are used to benefit the children of the Beth Israel Religious School.

The event will take place on Thursday, Nov. 16, at noon in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel.

Program chairman Mrs. Irving Rosenberg has planned an outstanding program, featuring the Rae Levy Players in a surprise performance.

Friday the general assembly for George Washington school was given by Mrs. Marion Livesay's sixth grade. They presented and original play written by Tom King, Cathy Bogden, Kathy Christian, Barbara Henson, Gary Webber, and Rebecca Vincent, entitled Mexican Fiesta.

The cast included, reporters, Gary Webber, Rebecca Vincent; boss, Russell Runge; father, Tom King; mother, Cathy Bogden; daughter, Kathy Christian; son, Michael Ortiz; Mexicans, David Ewick, Pamela Booth, Kathy Flemming, Judy Goodin, Martine Jubeault, David Matison, Janet Monti, Darlene Mullins, Adrienne Salmon, Michael Vidal, Jim Alexander, James Burns, Ed Braun, Mary Edwards, Jim Golden, Barbara Henson, Linda Lam, Lillian Miller, Lynette Mudge, Danny O'Toole, Janice Tofting. Announcer, Shirely Selhorn.

Stamp Club

The George Washington Stamp Club meets each Tuesday with advisor, Mrs. Violet Norsworthy to exchange stamps and acquaint others with the hobby. The following officers were elected: Christine Flemming, president; Barbara Camozzi, vice president; Maureen Bianchini, secretary; and Barbara Martin, treasurer.

Sports

The first round of intra-murals at Washington were held this week by the following classes: Sixth grade—Mrs. Marion Livesay's boys, the Packers, won football, and Mr. Jim Hough's girls, the 49ers, won basketball. Fifth grade—Mrs. Violet Norsworthy's boys, the Pirates, won kickball and her girls, the Pirates, won girls' kickball.

The athletic council organized with the following officers: Carl Campos, president; Shawn McDonnell, vice president and Gloria Moreno, secretary.

Student Council

The student council of George Washington grade school was represented at the tenth annual Junior UNESCO Conference held at Taylor Intermediate School of Millbrae Friday, Oct. 27, by Ronald Hampton, Marine Jebeault, and John Gooden.

The students were given an introduction to activities to promote international understanding. They view a film, "Assignment Children" featuring Danny Kay. Esperanto was featured as the international language in use.

Temple Methodist Plans Demonstration

The youth division of Temple Methodist Church will hold its annual floral demonstration on Thursday, Nov. 16, from 7 to 9 p.m., at Temple Methodist Church, Junipero Serra boulevard at 19th avenue, San Francisco.

Lou Huff of the Blossom Shop, 1607 Haight street, will present this program and the receipts will be given to the "Friends of Youth" fund, to assist our youth and adult workers with youth to attend camps and conferences.

Refreshments will be served.

Peace Corps Volunteer In Training

DE KALB, ILL. — Cynthia L'Argent-Erskine, 30, 395 Palomar Dr., Daly City, is one of 39 Peace Corps Volunteers training at Northern Illinois University for assignment early in 1962 in Malaya.

She probably will be assigned to a Malayan district hospital as a laboratory technician upon successful completion of her NIU training.

Miss L'Argent-Erskine received her certificate in medical technology from Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort San Houston, San Antonio, Tex., in 1957. She served three years as a member of the Womens Army Corps (WAC), stationed as section chief of the medical laboratory at Fort Sill, Okla. Prior to that she had worked four years as a laboratory assistant in a chemical plant.

Burbank Teenager Runs For President In Mad Musical

If not every mother's son wants to grow up to be Presiden of the United States—what about one father's teenage girl? This is the riotous plot of "Holly Wood for President," a madcap musical satire to be presented by the students of Luther Burbank Junior High School in their auditorium, 325 La Grande, on Nov. 8 and 9 at 7 p. m.

Accurate and humorous down to the last baby-kissing Senator, "Holly Wood for President" is the disarming story of a teen-ager who believes politicians should practice what they shout. This is enough to move any candidate from a little red schoolhouse to the White House.

Holly is the kind of girl that thinks "party politics" is for the coke set and before the evening's entertainment is over, she might have convinced you as well.

Tickets for the musical comedy will be sold at the school. Prices are 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for student body members.

West Pacific Duty

Robert S. Braun, construction apprentice, SN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Braun of 403 88th street, Colma, is serving in the Wester Pacific with Naval Construction Battalion Five on Okinawa.

The battalion is completing construction of a Marine Corps air facility at Futama, Okinawa.

Daly City Man In 'Rainmaker' Play

The Mainliner Theater Guild of United Air Lines will sponsor "The Rainmaker," by N. Richard Nash, a romantic comedy in three acts directed by Lamar Barron of San Bruno.

The play will ge given in the Veteran's Memorial Building, 1455 Madison avenue, Redwood City, on Nov. 11, 12, 17 and 18. Curtain time is 8:30 p. m. Don Heissenbuttel of Daly City will play the part of Noah, the older son.

Will "Explore" Facts About Nuclear Warfare

The prospects for individual survival in a nuclear war will be explored in a five-week series of Saturday morning programs, beginning Nov. 18, at the University of California Extension Center in San Francisco.

The Extension series will feature such outstanding authorities as Edward Teller, U.C. professor of physics; Admiral Albert G. Cook, director of the San Francisco Disaster Corps; Julius Brandstatter, physicist at the Stanford Research Institute; Hardin B. Jones, U.C. professor of physiology and assistant director of Donner Laboratory; Robert Olson, assistant to the director of the U.S. Department of Agricultural Western Regional Laboratories; Hubert S. Coffey, U.C. associate professor of psychology; and Myron B. Hawkins, U.S. research engineer.

The aim of the series is to help individuals make intelligent decisions about the facts of nuclear warfare and the problems of survival. The Saturday morning sessions will meet from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Lectures and discussions will cover nuclear warfare, nuclear weapons; trends in public thinking toward nuclear warfare; current and future planning for public disasters; shelter construction and physical facilities; bio-radiational problems; public health for public and private shelters; the psychology of shelter living; city planning and related problems; food technology and shelter diet; and post-nuclear problems of survival and rebuilding.

The Malayan Volunteers' classes will include the following instruction: 120 hours on southeast Asia, 80 hours on American studies, 60 hours on world affairs, 120 hours physical conditioning, 33 hours health training including 10 on Red Cross first aid, 20 hours of an introduction to the three languages they will encounter, Malay, Chinese and Tamil, a dialect of India; and 15 hours of Peace Corps orientation.

The Volunteers got an early introduction to physical conditioning. They are not permitted cars during the nine-week training. They must walk the one-mile distance from the downtown Rice Hotel where they are housed to the NIU campus. Their training ends Dec. 15.

The NIU-trained Peace Corps Volunteers will receive two weeks home leave upon completion of their campus stay. They then will be sent to Malaya where they will receive further instruction, particularly in the languages, before beginning their duties.

Some questions for discussion will be: What are the blast and radiation effects of nuclear weapons? What are California's plans for dealing with nuclear disaster? What equipment is essential for disaster shelters? What kind of shelter is best? What are the biological and genetic effects of radiation? What kinds of psychological problems can be anticipated in shelter living? What are the food and water requirements of shelter living? What are the post-nuclear problems of individuals and governments?

Enrollment in the U.C. Extension program is open to any adult. The fee is $15 per person, or $20 per married couple. Further information and application for enrollment may be obtained from University Extension, University of California, Berkeley 4, Calif.

FOUNDATION FOR BLIND PRODUCES RECORDINGS

Through its Talking Book facilities, the American Foundation for the Blind last year made 530,000 pressings of records for the Library of Congress, the American Bible Society and others.

Outer Space Microbe 'Menace' Under Study

Human life on earth could be wiped out by strange new microbes from other planets — unless an effective decontamination method is developed before the first round-trip space vehicles are launched, Lockheed scientists have warned.

An intensive five-year program covering study of biological decontamination techniques and building of ground and in-flight sterilization units is proposed by a team from Lockheed Missiles & Space Company.

In a historical comparison, it was pointed out that the ordinarily mild chiidren's disease of measles became a rampaging killer when introduced to the South Sea Islands by Europeans during the eighteenth century.

NO IMMUNITY

Because long-isolated Polynesians did not possess the immunity built up by Europeans over the centuries, almost the entire native populations of some Pacific islands died of measles. And almost as deadly were whooping cough and mumps.

There could be a 20th century space age parallel that could affect the whole human race when spacecraft return to earth after initial landings on Mars and Venus — perhaps within 10 years.

Lockheed scientists noted that not only living biological matter from other planets can house bacteria but also every extraterrestrial specimen of rock, soil, and atmosphere is suspect of carrying infectious material that may be detrimental to man, animals and plants.

Equally dangerous could be the introduction of unknown forms of plant life that might play havoc with the established order of life on earth. Such material might be present on film and tape records and sampling instruments brought back from extraterrestrial surfaces.

STERILIZATION

This material must be sterilized, handled asceptically, and, if possible, decontaminated of living organisms, the scientists state.

Sterilization could take place on the extraterrestrial planet or in-flight back to earth—by means of remote control units —or on earth itself in a predetermined sealed-off area.

Scientists emphasized that sterilization is a two-way street. Space vehicles launched from earth should be completely clean antiseptically to prevent contamination of other planets and the moon by earth-born bacteria.

This would also preclude the inadvertent seeding of other celestial bodies, permitting scientific space explorers to find extraterrestrial life unchanged when man finally takes that

HALF BLIND YOUNGSTERS NOT RECEIVING SERVICES

The American Foundation for the Blind reveals that about 16,000 blind children are enrolled in education programs, where they receive the special services set up by State and Federal governments, but adds the number of blind youth not receiving these services may first giant step onto another planet.

"Without proper sterilization," a Lockheed scientist said, "it is very possible to destroy invaluable clues to the origin of the universe and of life itself, which may be within the lunar strata and under the atmospheres of strange planets.

The Van Nuys section of Lockheed Missiles & Space Co. has already designed and built a prototype sterilizing unit for the lunar landing Ranger space vehicle. The first Ranger, using a Lockheed Agena second stage, was launched last August.

The sterilizing unit, using a mixture of ethylene oxide and Freon-12 gases as the sterilizing agent, was tested at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

However, in the proposed long-range study, scientists urge that spacecraft be developed—from initial design through fabrication and launch — to facilitate sterilization of all components. This would even call for sterile assembly technique.

Among the methods of sterilization and decontamination that should be investigated for either earth or space operations, scientists note, are:

Ultrasonic vibrations, radiation, dry heat, chemical disinfectant (liquid or gas), extreme cold, dehydration (to destroy microbes) and mechanical destruction (use of grinding particles approaching the size of microbes.)

When manned space exploration takes place, the sterilization procedures will extend to space suit exteriors and the areas between the space vehicle cabin and the outside environment. Sterile procedures must be devised for astronauts re-entering the space vehicle and maintaining a sterile airlock prior to retrieval operations on earth.

However, scientists reiterate, only when the sterilization procedures are entirely effective can man explore his solar system without the danger of destroying his home civilization.

Garden Club To Hear Coastal Soils Talk

Marvin D. Davis, farm advisor, University of California Agricultural Extension Service, San Mateo County, will speak on the coastal soils at the regular monthly meeting of the Pacifica Flower Friends Garden Club, Wednesday, Nov. 15, at the Pacifica Play School Building, 345 Hewitt avenue, Rockaway.

Members are reminded to bring plants for the plant table.

B'Nai Brith Membership Meeting

A general membership meeting was held in the social hall of the Congregation B'Nai Israel on Saturday, October 28, at which time the following officers and trustees were elected for the ensuing year: Ralph Welsh, president; Ernest Hartmann, vice-president; Mrs. Morton Dobrow, treasurer; Mrs. Leon Hoffman, recording secretary, and Mrs. Edward Nordson, corresponding secretary. Trustees: Messrs. Leon Benson, George Ehrlich, David Hoffman, Jerry Klonoff, Morris Krow, Harold Levinson and Jacob Stein.

An adult class in Hebrew education will be conducted by Rabbi Solomon A. Shore every Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Temple House at 67 Los Banos. Among the many subjects to be covered in this course will be prayers, Hebrew folklore, the Hebrew language and discussions on the Bible. This free course is available to all members of the congregation. Those interested, please contact Rabbi Shore at JU 6-7642.

The Confirmation class which meets every Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 at Temple House has been warmly received by the teenagers of the congregation. All the boys and girls who have not availed themselves of this interesting and informative course are urged to join this class.

"Isaac, the Father of Two Ethnic Groups" will be the sermon subject as Rabbi Shore conducts Sabbath eve services at 8:30 Friday, Nov. 10. This Biblical account will tell us about the origin of the Jewish and Arab peoples.

Westlake Catholic Women To Meet

The monthly meeting of the Westlake Catholic Women will be held Monday evening, Nov. 13, in the parish hall of Our Lady of Mercy Church at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Al Bucci invites all women of the parish to attend this important meeting.

The first social event of the Westlake Catholic Women, the eighth annual Mercy Ball, was a successful as well as a decorative event, and Mrs. Frank Lawson will report on the elegant dinner dance, which was held on Oct. 28.

Mrs. Frank Kelechava, chairman of the rummage sale, requests that all women who have any rummage bring it to the meeting on Monday evening.

Mrs. Frank Burns is chairman of the annual fashion show which will be held Feb. 3, 1962, in the grand ballroom of the Fairmont Towers. The committee chairmen will be announced by Mrs. Burns.

Hospital chairman, Mrs. William Coen, will be assisted by the following hosesses, Mrs. Robert Bianchi, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Robert Pardini, Mrs. John Shubunka and Mrs. Donald Twohey.

Stanley Party

Nu Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will host a Stanley party Nov. 9 at the home of Mrs. John Comach, 461 Southgate avenue. The party will be a combined social and ways and means project.

Medic-Alert Week Begins In California

"Two little words . . . Medic-Alert . . . can save a life."

"Please remember these two words this and every week," Mayor George Christopher implored today as he and mayors from one end of California to another simultaneously proclaimed today the week of November 5-11 as Medic-Alert Week.

Mayor Christopher urged everyone to become familiar with the life-saving Medic-Alert bracelets and emblems with the bright red medical insignias.

The Medic-Alert Week is sponsored by the Federation of Women's Clubs and Medical Assistants Association and Nurses Associations throughout the State. Thousands of women will be manning booths, speaking before clubs and distributing educational material over all of California.

Public Awareness

Public awareness of the assurance and protection provided people with hidden medical problems and allergies to certain drugs is the purpose behind Medic-Alert Week.

The Medic-Alert Foundation International, with headquarters in Turlock, California, is a non-profit organization which provides stainless steel, or silver, bracelets, medallions and emblems with the Caducius (universal medical insignia) on one side and the warning of the wearer's problem engraved on the back.

The Medic-Alert emblems assure proper and immediate medical assistance should a person with a hidden medical problem be in a state of shock, delirium or unconsciousness as a result of an accident, seizure or other emergencies.

"There are over 40 million people in the United States today, one member in every family, with a hidden medical problem such as diabetes, epilepsy, hemophilia, rare blood types, allergies to drugs, cardiac conditions and countless other afflications, who would be helpless and in danger if they were in an accident and unable to talk," said Mrs. Doreen Tucker, president of the San Francisco Women's Club Junior Membership.

Vital Information

Medic-Alert protection goes beyond providing the bracelets. A central file is maintained in the Turlock headquarters where the medical records of its members are kept along with other vital information such as name of personal physician, address, nearest relative, etc.

These records, cross filed under name and serial number corresponding to the one engraved on each emblem, are available to physicians and other authorized personnel on a 24-hour, collect call basis.

Endorsed by many state medical associations, law enforcement agencies, fire departments and rescue squads, a year round educational program is conducted by the Foundation to familiarize every citizen to look for the Medic-Alert emblem when on the scene of an accident.

The mayor urged all citizens to learn the facts about Medic-Alert and the "bracelets that save lives," adding while it's vital to get medical aid first, it's more important to first get the right aid.

Anyone seeking further information should write to Medic-Alert Foundation, Turlock, California, or go to the nearest Medic-Alert booth in your community.

Childbirth Class Slated for Nov. 14

A new series of classes in "Preparation for Childbirth" is scheduled to open Tuesday, Nov. 14, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., at Peninsula Hospital Physical Therapy room.

These classes for expectant mothers are being offered by the College of San Mateo, extended day division, and have been planned in cooperation with the San Mateo County Medical Society. This is the last series of these classes that will be offered until after the holidays.

Expectant mothers are requested to pre-register so that the size of the class may be restricted to insure individual attention to each mother. This may be done by telephoning the College of San Mateo or the instructor for the course, Mrs. Arthur Imamoto, PHN.

Mrs. Imamoto will be assisted in her lectures and demonstrations by physicians from the San Mateo Medical Society, and by an obstetrical nurse at the Peninsula Hospital. Three of the class meetings are of special interest to fathers.

Mothers enrolling for the course are requested to bring written permission from their physicians to the first meeting.

These classes are designed to help expectant mothers learn breathing and relaxation techniques that will enable young parents to have more understanding and less apprehension of pregnancy, delivery and parenthood.

CUB PACK 248 Cubs receive awards as parents stand by during presentation.

Cub Pack 248 Has Action-Packed Month

Cub master Dr. Sanford Marcus and Assistant Cub master Clyde Sargent were kept busy at the October meeting of Cub Pack 248. Seven new cubs were inducted.

Awards were given to many of the cubs in achievements, and trophies were given to Den 9 for inspection, Den 7 for parents attendance, and Den 6 for their skit on "Sleepy Hollow Land," which was the Packs theme for October.

Each den put on an exciting display, blinking pumpkins dancing goblins, and the headless horseman, were among them.

Dr. Marcus showed some beautiful slides of the High Sierra's and refreshments were served at the end of an action packed meeting.

Plans for the Nov. 16 pack meeting were announced. There will be two magicians that evening. The theme for November is Cub Scout Magic.

The Cubs are kept busy this month with swimming each Saturday. They are also filling a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family.

Pack meetings are held the third Thursday of each month at Fernando Rivera School, at 7:30. The next meeting will be held Nov. 16. Boys 8 to 10 interested in joining should contact Irving Blackfield at PL 6-0355.

Mother's Club To See Film On Entertaining

Mrs. Thomas Burns, president of St. Cecilia's Mothers' Club, announced the next monthly meeting will be held on Monday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Clarence Hoe, program chairman, has made arrangements with the Pacific Gas & Electric Company to show its outstanding film on "Holiday Entertaining."

Refreshments will be served following the meeting in the cafeteria. Mrs. Albert Paoli, hospitality chairman, will be assisted by the seventh grade mothers.

BLIND CALLING FOR DYNAMIC PARTNERSHIP

Stating that more research is imperative, the American Foundation for the Blind, in the magazine The New Outlook for the Blind, calls for a more dynamic partnership between government, private agencies, universities and the considerable facilities of industry to make a break-through which could yield the basic information necessary to combat the problems of blindness.

Abe Lincoln School News

Proving beyond doubt that education can be fun, the fourth-fifth combination class of Abraham Lincoln Elementary School, Mrs. Kathryn Gerdes, teacher, presented their dramatic conclusions on the study of countries and their explorers to an audience made up of the fourth grades of Mrs. Anne Byerly and Miss Sylvia Little and the fifth grade of Mrs. Nettie Herbert.

The students had been divided into seven groups, each group to study thoroughly a country and the explorers of that country. Meeting with a chairman, the group decided upon the way in which the information was to be presented to the classes. From these discussions, and as a result of much preparation, evolved five separate forms of dramatic sharing of the facts.

Three groups represented the Spanish study. Under the chairmanship of Wendy Baltor, a puppet show was given by Paul Kelly, Teresa Pagani, Julianna Klemm and Cindy Ellis. Group two, chairman Kathy Ahern, also presented a puppet show on explorers with leading parts taken by Elaine Lubbe, Cathy Newton, David Modesette, Greg Arlotta and Robin Simon. The third Spanish group, chairmanned by Steve Wahl, created a stirring movie with Lewis Thomson, Margaret Puttman and Jim Barnes acting as producer, director and technicians.

The French explorers were represented by a play, written and performed by Douglas Kapovich, chairman, with Fred Kornahrens, Carrine Langner, Ricky Gurtner and Paul Marinko; and a puppet show was given by Debbie Hayner, chairman, with Linda Spackman, Dianne Porter and Cathy Newton.

The two English groups offered two new forms of explanation with a diorama, prepared by Rosanne Campanolo, chairman; Lynn Thorn and Marguerite Baker, and oral reports given by Wendy Goldstein, chairman; Charyl Kimberly and Sue Shaban.

Joseph Tringili led the group on the Portuguese explorers, presenting a puppet show with Toby Muskin, Gary Koolpe and Nel Crosbie.

Parent-Teacher Meetings

Four interesting Parent-Teacher group meetings for the Abraham Lincoln Elementary School kindergarten have been held in past weeks.

On October 26, Mrs. Miriam Holmberg, kindergarten A, met with mothers at the home of Mrs. George Koch, and on Oct. 27 she met with other parents at the home of Mrs. Melvin D'Elia.

Among those present were Mrs. Joseph McEvoy, Mrs. Raymond Kehrt, Mrs. George Butorac, Mrs John Barrlier, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Robert Crosbie, Mrs. Gordon Keenan and Mrs. Jack Troy.

Mrs. Kay Bollendonk, teacher of kindergarten B, discussed kindergarten curriculum with a group of mothers on Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. John Moran. Mrs. James Meagher, Mrs. Edward O'Connell, Mrs. John Pavosevich, Mrs. Robert Rebolini, Mrs. Richard Philbert, Mrs. Melville Leathley and Mrs. Jean McNob were present.

On the following day, Nov. 3, Mrs. Holmberg talked with mothers of her group at the home of Mrs. Shirley Paul. Gathered together at this meeting were Mrs. Herbert Edwards, Mrs. James Greene, Mrs. Jerry Klonoff, Mrs. James Knauss, Mrs. Charles Radford, Mrs. Wayne Duden, Mrs. Donald Forbes and Mrs. C. P. Gressam.

These weekly gatherings will continue until all parents of the four kindergarten groups have had the opportunity to meet with and talk with the teachers. Individual conferences with each parents will be held in the school room later in the term.

Small Goblins Lurk

What small Goblins lurk on Halloween! The kindergarten classes delighted the entire student body of Abraham Lincoln Elementary School on Tuesday, Oct. 31, with their annual parade of the spirits of horror and fantasy.

Among the witches, devils and black cats marched fairy princesses, rabbits, cowboys and gypsies as the costumed bands made their tour of the school rooms. The morning classes visited the primary grades, pausing to sing Halloween songs and to be welcomed by many older brothers and sisters.

The afternoon classes circled the intermediate corridors, unsmilingly seeking to scare the big boys and girls, and being enthusiastically received by teachers and classes alike.

During the day's activities, the kindergarteners, too, had visitors from Mrs. Kathryn Gerdes' fourth-fifth grade students. Wendy Baltor, Cindy Ellis, Teresa Pagani, Kathy Ahern, Robin Simon, Marguerite Baker, Elaine Lubbe, Rosanne Campagnolo, Toby Muskin, Doug Kapovich, Paul Kelly and Joseph Tringali arrived — to the delight of the youngest children in the school — to read original stories and poems of Halloween.

These recitals were accompanied by vivid illustrations conceived by the older children.

The same group of upper classmen also entertained the

Garden Village Students See Movies As Award

Good citizenship was rewarded last week at Garden Village School in the form of two films, provided by the PTA.

The films, "Beaver Valley," and "Man On A Mountain," were for the primary and intermediate grades, and, the purpose of these films is not only to serve as a form of educational entertainment, but also as an impetus for fostering good citizenship qualities.

Each month following will feature an assembly for outstanding students in this area.

The fifth grade classes culminated their unit on Hawaii in an authentic fashion. Ron Madariage, Miss Corrine Larson and Miss Gloria DeMattei's classes celebrated a learning experience by having a luau.

They feasted in the Hawaiian manner and costumes. The following room mothers assisted in this affair: Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Haberman, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Tonnissen, Mrs. Bartelmez, Mrs. Meade, Mrs. Sobiek, Mrs. Knight, and Mrs. Catechi.

Also, student delegates from Garden Village; Robert Parkinson, Brian Tinsley, Sheryl Jeppson, and Elaine Chiosso attended the Junior Unesco Conference on Friday, Oct. 27, at Burlingame.

The conference was designed for students of the fifth grade through eighth to provide an opportunity for pupils to report and to exchange ideas on how to promote international understanding and friendship.

The four will report back to each fourth and fifth grade as a committee.

Westmoor HS Liberal Arts Guild To View 'To Live In Peace'

Viewing "To Live in Peace" at the Cinema Theater in Berkeley on Nov. 12, followed by a Chinese-style dinner is a forthcoming event for the Liberal Arts Guild of Westmoor High School.

This active organization recently visited San Francisco State College to see an outstanding movie in the Encore Film Series, "Ballad of a Soldier," the prize-winning movie of last lear's San Francisco Film Festival and attended "Five Finger Exercise," a play starring Jessica Tandy.

Guild members have also been seen at various art exhibits and were in the audience at Grace Cathedral when Frederico Germani, former organist at the Vatican for a number of years, gave a concert.

Formed in April of 1961, the Liberal Arts Guild attempts to encourage members to think and discuss their thoughts and opinions. Although originally intended to be a philosophy club, the group eventually combined this philosphy idea with those of the former Arts Guild.

The Guild discusses at each meeting a controversial subject presented through lectures.

The club does not take attendance and has only one officer. Chairman, Janet Spears, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Spears of 160 Westmoor Avenue, leads the members in discussions.

Chairmen are elected on a yearly basis each spring and must be juniors. Advising the group are Robert Nissen and Selwyn Jones.

Explaning the need for such an organization, Janet commented, "High school students, as a whole, have no outlet for voicing their opinions and hearing the opinions of others on political issues, current social problems, cultural events, and anything else the liberal arts field encompasses."

Pedro Valley Meets

The Pedro Valley PTA will hold a general meeting on Nov. 9, at 8 p.m., in the multipurpose room of the Pedro Valley School.

Rung Hasselgren, noted singer and guitar player, will entertain.

The annual children's homesewn fashion show will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Floriolli.

Prizes will be awarded to the winners of the recent membership contest.

SNAKES

Some snakes, according to the National Automobile Club, have been known to live from one to two years without food by absorbing the fat of their own bodies.

Shower Held For Anna Marie Quattrin

Anna Maria Quattrin was given a surplus wedding shower by her cousin, Joan Perotti, on Nov. 1 at the home of her aunt, Mrs. August Perotti. The dining room was decorated with white wedding bells and a lovely white parasol.

The bride-to-be received many lovely gifts, and after opening her gifts a buffet supper was served.

Those present besides the future bride were the hostess, Miss Joan Perotti, and the Misses Mary Ford, Janet Forenesi, Carol Perotti, Julie Landi, Garl Ellopoulos.

Mesdames Michael Zuffi, her mother, August Perotti, Emilia Quattrin, Lelio Martinelli, Ann Bradley and daughter, Diana, Joseph Braan, Joseph Cereghino, Ben Riley, Melvin Hanson, Angelo Martinelli, George Claus, Henry Willers, Angelo Verza and Antone Fischer.

PARK CONCESSION

The State Division of Beaches and Parks will let a five-year concession contract at Richardson Grove State Park, Humboldt County, by means of public bidding.

The concession consists of food, a soda fountain, a campers' grocery store, a souvenir and gift shop. The effective date of the contract will be January 1, 1962.

For further information, contact the Concessions Officer, Division of Beaches and Parks, P.O. Box 2390, Sacramento. Telephone HIckory 5-4711, Ext. 2024.

LAW IN ACTION

REQUIREMENTS OF A WILL

The Legislature creates your right and makes the rules for distributing your property by will.

Changes in other laws, say tax law, may also affect your plans for taking care of your family. Besides, new conditions in your life—through births, marriages, divorces, or death--may impair your will.

So, have your will checked over now and then. Does it meet new conditions in the law or in your personal and business life?

A valid will calls for certain things:

1. It must declare your intention: It usually says that certain persons or institutions shall become owners of certain property when the "testator" dies.

2. You must sign a written will. Ordinarily, the signature you use in signing your checks is the name you will sign in your will.

3. You sign your will at the bottom to keep someone from adding terms to the will.

4. A witnessed will must be published and attested: A lawyer who draws a will usually supervises its signing, publishing, and witnessing. You publish it when you tell at least two witnesses in your presence that you are then and there signing your will. (They do not have to know what the will says.)

The witnesses attest your signing of the will by signing it themselves. They are then said to have witnessed the will's execution.

"Holographic" wills are exceptions: They are not witnessed. A notary public should never be permitted to put his seal on the will, or do anything with it, whether it is a witnessed or a holographic will. There seems to be a current old wives' tale that a notary public must "do something" with a will. That is absolutely not the fact. One may write out a holographic will in his own hand, (never on a typewriter) date it, and sign it. Where the testator's wishes can be legally interpreted, the court probates the will. Courts often find homemade, hand written wills hard to interpret legally, and they often fail in other respects.

5. Your will should be dated. To be valid, holographic wills must be fully dated i.e. the month, the day, and the year should appear. Witnessed wills should be dated. For, when a person leaves more than one will, the general rule is that the latest one prevails.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Scouts Theme Set On Skills, Preparedness, Conservation

Preparedness, wildlife conservation and Scout skills will highlight the activities of the 12 Boy Scout Troops of the Daly City - Colma area of the Lake Merced District, San Francisco Council, Boy Scouts of America for the next few months, it was announced by Dick Ross, District Scout Executive.

Ross explained that while most troops are active in the District's upcoming major activities such as Junior Leaders' Training Conference and 1961 Fall Roundup, they also have special themes each month.

HELP OTHERS

During November the troops will emphasize helping others, and will focus on the skills needed to be helpful. Many troops will set up mobilization plans of the type proven so effective in flood, hurricane and other disaster areas. Emergency skills such as first-aid will be taught and practiced.

Ross described the December theme of "A Helping Hand for Wildlife" as a "happy combination of two important parts of Boy Scouting — the out-of-doors and the Good Turn." Among the troop projects to help wildlife find winter food and shelter are bird feeding and animal feeding, projects at the San Francisco Council Camp in Marin County.

CONTESTS

"Win With Skill" will be the January theme. Troops will be holding contests among their patrols as they concentrate on sharpening a variety of Scout skills including fire making and fire prevention, first-aid, knots and lashings, distance judging and woods lore.

Ross pointed out that most troops in the Daly City area served by the San Francisco Council will welcome visitors during this active period as part of the Council-wide Fall Roundup, enabling parents and boys interested in Scouting to visit nearby units and select one to join.

"It's a great time for a boy to get in on the fun of Scouting," he said, "since he'll be able to learn and grow with his new troop through the year and be prepared as a Scout for next summer's camping."

Rams And Bearcats Battle To Wire In Funai Vs. Barney Duel

In an exciting contest that featured two completely different types of offense, San Mateo High School prevailed over Westmoor last Friday by the narrow score of 20 to 13.

So different were the attacks in this game that the winning team, San Mateo, could garner only a total of eight yards through the air, while the losers rolled up 231 overhead. There is the other side, however. San Mateo ran for 252 yards and Westmoor for only ten.

It was strictly a Funai vs. Barney contest. Barney, the fleet halfback from SM rolled up 166 yards on the ground before the game was over. Not to be outdone, quarterback Funai of the Rams passed for a fantastic total of 231 yards.

Funai opened up the game by hitting end Gary Allard on two straight passes for nine yards; then 40 yards and a touchdown. The next scoring involved Funai again, but this time a Bearcat back, Bob Pollack, intercepted a stray pass and set up the first San Mateo touchdown.

With the score at 7-6, Funai hit end Allard again, and with a good conversion, Westmoor again took the lead, 13-7.

Then the Bearcats put halfback Barney back to work and the speedy sprinter scored twice to give SM a 20-13 yead. Barney's scoring runs for the day were 4 yards, 31 yards, and 6 yards.

The Rams put on a fourth quarter drive that almost pulled the game out, but with a fourth and goal on the Bearcat one, the Cats held for the victory.

Major Sports Switch Seen By Tomisello

By JACK WOOD

Care to make any sports predictions? Well, Daly City recreation supervisor Ed Tomisello believes that United States football fans will be turning to another sport soon.

He thinks it will be either rugby or soccer.

he reasons are: 1—Too many injuries in football. 2—Rugby is a more individual sport. 3—Both rugby and soccer are crowd pleasers that do not cost so much as college ball.

"Baseball was the real thing in college ball games in the 1920s," Tomisello said. "Then that went and the crowds began to start eating up football."

Ed feels the change will come in about ten years. Pro football, with its long schedules and huge attendance will kill the game of football altogether, he said.

Boxing Going, Too

Boxing is another sport which came and almost "went" from the college scene, he mused. Ed remembers in the 1950s when boxing was still on the sports slate at San Francisco State College. Then a well known boxer got his jaw broken in 12 places. The college officials met and asked themselves why boxing should remain on the sports scene.

The officials could not find any reason why the sport should remain. And in 1954 the game was ruled out of the college schedule. Other colleges followed suit and today there are very few schools across the country with boxing on the schedule—or that promote boxing.

Very Few Tackles

Rugby is a "good game," according to Ed because it is much like basketball in the sense that the ball is moved back and forth to the players.

There are very few tackles. In an American football game, there might be 45 tackles. In rugby, there may be about ten tackles per game. The ball carrier laterals back and the ball goes through a sort of passing routine like in basketball.

Many American football injuries occur through contact blocking. There is no blocking in rugby. Players wear only a pair of shorts, long socks and knee guards.

Recreation Dept. Hosts Dances

The Daly City Recreation Department sponsored two successful Halloween dances. The first one was held Saturday night, Oct. 28, for seventh and eighth grade students of Daly City. More than 300 students and many parents enjoyed a movie and dancing at the War Memorial Community Center. Popular opinion expressed by the parents was decidedly in favor of more activities of this type for the junior high age group.

On Halloween night, the recreation department sponsored a costume dance for the Hi Fi Teen Club with approximately 400 high school students attending. The dance was preceded by a movie.

Prizes were awarded to the following:

First prize—funniest costume, Dave Ballentini.

Second prize — weirdest costume, Dianna Davison.

Third prize — most original costume, Sherril Fitzpatrick.

Fourth prize—costume with the most work, Donna Lesher.

Dave Bellentini's funniest costume is hard to describe. He combined many types of clothing that had to be seen to be appreciated. Dianna Davison's weirdest costume was that of a vampire. Sherril Fitzpatrick put together bath towels, shower cap, shower hose, etc., for her most original costume entitled "wash and wear." Donna Lesher's costume, with the most work on it, was that of an authentic geisha girl. Winners were awarded small pumpkins with $5 tucked inside.

After the costume contest, the newly-elected members of the Hi Fi Teen Club Council, Walt Pickering, Arlene Day, Sam Ennon, Craig Garcia, Mike Burger and Ray Marshall, were introduced. These elected council members, along with six appointed members, will govern the Hi Fi Teen Club for the next year.

Christmas Classes Offered

A class in candlemaking and Christmas craft is now being offered by the Daly City Department of Recreation.

Classes meet each Friday evening in the War Memorial Community Center from 7:15 to 10 p. m. There is no charge for the class. However, participants will be asked to pay for material used.

Members of the class will learn to make glo candles made of beeswax and many decorative ideas for the holiday season.

Persons who are attending class for the first time this Friday, Nov. 10, are asked to bring a small wax container such as a half pint milk carton or a dixie cup to use as a mold for their first candle project.

For further information, call the Recreation Department at PL 5-0850, extension 18.

Knights Show Good Depth All Not Lost For DC Fan

It looks like the only time it's safe to predict a victory by one of our three area teams is when two of them are matched against each other.

Terra Nova understandably was bowled over by Hillsdale as the Knights ramble on toward the decider Nov. 22 with Capuchino. The overdeveloped men from Hillsdale had no difficulty with the game crew from Terra Nova despite a competent passing attack put on by the Tiger's Don Katona.

It was clearly a case of horses as Hillsdale's second and third teams played a good deal of the time, and proved, as understudies, almost as talented as the leading men.

Let's hope for a big Tiger rebound next week against San Mateo.

On the subject of talented football teams, we probably shouldn't be ignorant of the great brand of football being played at S. F. State's Cox Stadium this year.

The S. F. State Gators have had winning seasons the last few years now, and with Cox Stadium practically within walking distance of Daly City we recommend spending a warm Saturday afternoon watching the boys take on their Far Western Conference opponents.

One of the teams in this tough league, the Humboldt State Lumberjacks, is a nationally ranked small college team. Two weeks ago in a game against the University of California at Davis Aggies, the Lumberjacks were losing one on the final minutes, 18-12. They were closing in on the Aggie goal just as the gun sounded. Bang! It's over.

But was it?

No, said the referee, Davis was offside on that last play. Humboldt gets one more chance. (Guess, by the way, where this game was being played).

So though the clock can't be moved back, one more play is run, or passed in this case, naturally is successful, and the ranked team stays ranked one more week.

Just as naturally the Aggie fans engage in all kinds of nefarious revelry on the field after the game, but being a rather small aggregation of visiting rooters, find themselves mightily outweighed.

Might might not make right, but if you're a pragmatist it does.

As an opiate to the distraught farmers from Davis, the game was alluded to as a moral victory for the Aggies.

I'm not sure that I know what that is.

I remember a story about the mouse sitting up in the Council of the Animals and demanding that all mice be given equal voice with the current leaders, the lions and the tigers.

"If you would be equal," said the lion, "where are your claws?"

Nevertheless some sterling football is being played right under our noses, and since it seems to be ordained that winning is passe' in our upper peninsula area this year, these games might prove to be real respite.

Westmoor High Junior Hoopsters Cop Four Straight Games

Westmoor High's 110's and 120's continued success by downing Terra Nova and Aragon High Schools last week. A clean sweep was managed by both schools.

Ram 110's were led by Jim Fair with 11 points against Terra Nova's Tigers, and 20 points against the Dons of Aragon. Final scores in these games were 33-17 against the Tigers, and 36-25 against the Dons.

Following Fair in totals for the two games were: John Putman, 15 points; Mike Land, 11 points; Joaquin Andrade, 9; Tom Parker, 4; Steve Sunseri, 2; and Steve Zarete, 1.

The 120's were victorious by scores of 34-10 and 36-34. High point man for the two game series was Barney Colangelo with 19 points. He was followed by Ed Parry and Ron Johnson with 10; John Price, 9; Jerry Donovan, 7; Bill Waite and Marty Palacious, 4; Tony Bento, 3; and Jim Orlich and Fred Sprinz with 2 each.

Against the Dons, the 120's had the most difficult game of the series. With the score changing hands a number of times, the Rams finally took the lead at 36-34 and a tough Ram defense kept Aragon from scoring the tying bucket during the final five minutes.

Donkey Baseball Hits Brisbane

Donkey baseball will be trotted out on the playing fields of Brisbane, Sunday, November 12, in a benefit game for the forth-coming Muscular Dystrophy Drive. Ready to mount promptly at 2 p.m. will be two teams representing Brisbane's "finest:" Sammy's Villagin vs. John De Marco's 23 Club.

According to Chairman Sam Sweitzer, "both teams have been in heavy training at their respective clubhouses and I can assure those who 'pack in' to Brisbane Stadium that these Donkey baseballers do not intend to make !!!!!! of themselves."

The "game," which can be fast moving or slow moving, depending upon the mood of the "participants," is expected to draw a capacity crowd to the stadium which can be reached by travelling the old Bayshore Highway "just over the hill from San Francisco."

Proceeds from this event will go directly to the San Francisco Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. Tickets are $1 for adults; 50c for youngsters and can be purchased directly at the stadium.

Hillside PTA Announces Next November Meet

Hillside PTA of the Colma School will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Nov. 16, at 7:30 p. m.

It is hoped that a large turnout of parents will attend this meeting because it promises to be very entertaining.

Mrs. Harry Poole, program chairman, has scheduled a spelling bee, parents versus students picked from the seventh and eighth grades. Also on the program will be a skit entitled "School Days," under the direction of Hugh Cox.

Students from Mrs. Scholler's and Mrs. Cox' grades will take part in this presentation, which we know you will enjoy.

Mrs. Edward Napps has announced that the membership drive has ended but any parents who still wish to join Hillside PTA will be very welcome.

Please come and share this enjoyable evening with us. Refreshments will be served following the program.

Jefferson Succumbs To Improved Mills

A rejuvenated Mills High School football team rolled to its second straight Peninsua League victory last Friday, beating Jefferson, 25-6.

It was Mills all the way. Riding on the strong-armed passing of quarterback Gene Scatini, and the srong running of a host of fast backs, the rapidly improving Vikings were never seriously extended.

Jeff scored first when a first period attempted Scatini pass was knocked from his hand and recovered in the end zone by Indian Al Cacicedo.

After that it was Scatini rolling up 159 yards in the air, and the strong running of Dick Smith et al accumulating 242 yards on the ground that completely dominated the contest.

The Indians never were able to get their attack going and ended up with only 69 yards on the ground and 32 in the air. Quarterback Bob Miller did not have one of his best days, completing 3 passes out of 20.

Friday the Indians can expect no respite as they journey to Hillsdale to play the league-leading Knights.

Fitness Shop To Be Held

Carl Wagner, physical education, of San Mateo High School heads the "Mens Physical Fitness Swap Shop," to be held at the Hillsdale High School, physical education building on Monday evening, Dec. 4.

A planning meeting was held, Monday night at San Mateo High School with Dennis Huajardo, physical educator of the Jefferson Elementary School District in Daly City and County Recreation Supervisor, Glen Smith.

The program will include Bill Mendosa of Ben Franklin School, Daly City, presenting a physical fitness program in an elementary school; Jim Bradshaw of Carlmont High and Don La Clerque of Capuching High will present a high school fitness program; Carl Wagner of San Mateo High will present "isometries" a program of "dynamic tension muscle building;" Gordon Gray of San Mateo College will present the President Kennedy's Youth Fitness Program; Bob Keropian, Principal of El Camino High School, South San Francisco on "muscle analysis;" Glen Smith County Recreation Supervisor on physical fitness programs of the public recreation departments in the county.

Jim Boyette: All-Around Type Student

By RANDY MARCUS

The brand-new Terra Nova High School in Pacifica has as its student body president an all-round type of student named Jim Boyette.

Jim maintains a better than B-plus average in his grades and has been a member of the California Scholastic Federation for four years, which means that his grades have been consistently above average.

A good deal of his time and energy for the last four years have also been devoted to sports; in particular, track and football.

JIM BOYETTE
Student Body President

As student body president, his major interest at the moment is the promotion of the candy sale. Chocolates are being sold by the students door-to-door and in the Shopping Center to raise money for the school activity fund and for the class treasuries.

Outside of school activities, Jim is a member of the Baptist Youth Fellowship.

The Boyette family moved to California in 1956 from North Carolina, and after a short sojourn in San Francisco, made their home in Pacifica. Jim's father, while in the service, was able to take his family, which besides Jim's mother, consists of an older brother, now in college, and a younger sister, to such interesting stations as Austria and Hawaii.

Jim would like to study in some field of engineering after his graduation from high school; if possible at one of the service academies.

Champ Races At Half Moon Bay Drag Strip

The Sixth Annual Drag Strip Championship Races will be held Sunday, Nov. 12, at Half Moon Bay Drag Strip and will feature all the top names in the Northern California area plus many top cars from Southern California.

Headlining the list will be the Quincy Automotive Special from Long Beach, driven by Bill Alexander.

Also from Los Angeles, in his first Northern California appearance, will be the "king of the gas coupes," Junior Thompson, in a super-charged Chevrolet stock-bodied coupe. Gates open at 8:30 a.m., eliminations at 1:30 p.m.

Judo Academy Enters Meet

The 1961-62 judo season gets underway Sunday, Nov. 12, as Cahill's Judo Academy of South San Francisco travels to Palo Alto for the annual Judo Black Belt Federation invitational tournament.

Some 200 juniors, 16 years of age and under, and 250 adults are expected to participate. Cahill's will enter five juniors and 12 adults.

North County entrants include:

Juniors—Joe Colon and Jody D'Embeau, South San Francisco; Fred Bennett and Richard Haines, San Mateo; and Daryl Christensen, San Bruno.

Adults—Black Belt: Fred Cahill, San Bruno, and Willy Cahill, South San Francisco; Brown Belts: John Donham, Ricky Ramirez, Phil Lara, Joe Souza, Eddie Rodriques and Joe Benetti, South San Francisco. White Belts: Charlie Wright, South San Francisco, and Harry Medrano, Ken Karer and Jack Angius, San Bruno.

Elks Sponsor Charity Grid Game Nov. 19

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will sponsor the annual Elk Bowl football game on Sunday, Nov. 19, at South San Francisco High School.

The game will be played by Pop Warner All Stars, East Bay, vs. Peninsula.

The proceeds from this charity affair will go 100 per cent for rehabilitation of cerebral palsied and crippled children through the California Elks major project association.

This association is 11 years old and has given 11 years of help to the hundreds of children who have been re-habilitated. The association has 19 station wagons located throughout California.

Each is manned by a trained and paid physio therapist, and fully equipped with the necessary equipment to provide the therapy the children need.

It's SPARE TIME at Westlake Bowl

The costume bowling - dance was such a social success that it is now planned to make it a monthly affair with a different theme each month. The next one is planned for Dec. 2 and will be a third anniversary party.

Last week's Powder Puff Derby saw some tight competition and higher scores posted. Winning in the Scratch Division was Bonnie Birkett with a 572 series, followed by Helen Vincent with 549. There was a tie in the Handicap Division as Joan Gisler rolled 523-114 for 637 and Adele Miley posted 521-116-637. An all-new Ford . . .
Galaxie and Falcon

Some cars have new names...
this name will have a new car!

The name is familiar—the Ford Fairlane 500. The car itself is totally new—so new you'll see nothing else like it this year. It is one of Ford's milestone designs—and will be as influential in its way as the first mass-produced car (a Ford Model T), the first popular station wagon (a Ford Wagon), the first four-passenger luxury car (a Ford Thunderbird), the world's most successful compact (a Ford Falcon).

Right between Galaxie and Falcon in size and in price, the 1962 Ford Fairlane 500 is just the right car for just about everybody; you have never been able to buy anything so right before.

Big in room, ride and performance, it is still priced under most compacts. It nurses a nickel as though it never expected to see another. It moves like a rabbit on roller skates.

New unitized body a foot shorter outside . . . full-size inside

Ford engineers have changed the proportions of the automobile: a completely new unitized body gives you more room inside with less bulk outside. A foot shorter than previous Fairlanes, the new Fairlane 500 is pleasantly parkable, delightfully driveable, easily garageable. At the same time it packs into its neat and nifty 197 inches as much passenger room as you had in some of the biggest Fords ever built.

Twice-a-year maintenance

Service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, twice a year on the rest. You go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. You don't have to touch the engine coolant-antifreeze for two years—or 30,000 miles—at a time. Brakes adjust themselves.

All-new economy Eight from world's V-8 leader

The hand that honed the Thunderbird—and sped the Falcon to all-time Economy Run honors—turned to a new problem here, the world's first economy V-8. Made possible by new Ford foundry methods, the new Challenger V-8 is as strong as iron—and a lot lighter than iron's ever been before. As lively as you'd like . . . thriftier than you'd expect a V-8 to be . . . it's a natural powerplant for America's first eat-your-cake-and-have-it car.

For those who want even greater thrift, there's a new Fairlane Six. Its economy would be gratifying in a smaller car. In a car this size it's a downright delight.

Preview America's newest car now

As part of Preview Run U.S.A., new Fairlane 500's are riding the nation's highways and main streets right now. Watch for them. See what thousands have already seen—and raved about. Take a turn at the wheel—and perhaps do a little raving yourself.

We think you'll agree: this all-new Ford is just right for just about everybody. No matter how many new cars you've looked at, you haven't seen anything like this one. It will be at your Ford Dealer's next week. If you miss it now, be sure to see it then.
